9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle, but they were not seen without. And || there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses ^e put therein at Horeb, || when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place ; (for all the priests that were [†] present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course ;

12 ^a Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, ^b and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets ;)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets, and cymbals, and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, ^c For he is good ; for his mercy endureth for ever ; that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD ;

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud ; ^d for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

CHAP. VI.

1 Solomon, having blessed the people, ^e blebseth God : 12 his prayer at the consecration of the temple.

THEN ^a said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the ^b thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, (and all the congregation of Israel stood.)

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there ; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel :

6 But ^c I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there ; and ^d have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now, ^e it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart :

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house ; but thy son, which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD, therefore, hath performed his word that he hath spoken : for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel :

11 And in it have I put the ark, ^f wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands,

13 (For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold of five cubits [†] long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court ; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,)

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, ^g there is no god like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth ; which keepeth covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants that walk before thee with all their hearts :

15 ^h Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him ; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now, therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, ¹† There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; ²† yet so that thy children take heed to their way, to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth! Behold, heaven, and the heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have builded?)

19 Have respect, therefore, to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee;

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth || toward this place.

21 Hearken, therefore, unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall † make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven: and, when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, † and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel || be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee || in this house:

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them, and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the ^m heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them:

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there ⁿ be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them † in the cities of their land; whatsoever fore, or whatsoever sickness, there be:

29 Then what prayer, or what supplication,soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own fore, and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands || in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only ⁿ knowest the hearts of the children of men;)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways † so long as they live † in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover, concerning the stranger, ^p which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great names sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house:

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel; and may know that † this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.

34 ¶ If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their || cause.

36 ¶ If they sin against thee, (for there is ⁿ no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and † they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

C H A P. VII.

1 God giving testimony to Solomons prayer, the people worship the Lord.

2 Now, when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

3 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORDS house.

4 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

6 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

7 And the priests waited on their offices; the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

8 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

9 ¶ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.

10 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

11 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents glad and merry in heart, for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

12 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the kings house: and all that came into Solomons heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

13 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

14 If I shut up heaven, that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

15 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

16 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

17 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

18 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked,

1 Solomons buildings. 7 The Gentiles made tributaries. 12 Solomons yearly sacrifices.

AND ^a it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 That the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 And Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and [†] all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 [†] As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel, 8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomons officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 [¶] And Solomon ^c brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are [†] holy whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 [¶] Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch;

13 Even after a certain rate every ^d day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new-moons, and on the solemn feasts, ^e three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 [¶] And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the ^f courses of the priests to their service, and ^g the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the ^h porters also by their courses at every gate: for [†] so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now, all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished: so the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 [¶] Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to [¶] Eloth, at the sea-side in the land of Edom.

18 [†] And Hiram sent him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of 30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

1 Rehoboam refusing the old mens counsel, 16 ten tribes revolt, 18 kill Hadoram, and he fleeth.

And ^a Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat (who was in Egypt, ^b whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: so Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam; saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous; now, therefore, ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me, to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou ⁱ somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my fathers loins.

11 For, whereas my father ^j put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: ^k for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the ^l hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and see how none inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

2 But the word of the LORD came ^b to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up nor fight against your brethren; return every man to his house; for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Maresah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel † resorted to him out of all their coasts.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Maahath, the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, to wife, and Abihail, the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse :

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zahan.

20 And after her he took ^b Maachah the daughter of Abisalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Abisalom above all his wives and his concubines : (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines, and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam ⁱ made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren : for he thought to make him king.

And ^a it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, ^b he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that, in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, ^c because they had transgressed against the LORD, said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves, and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them ^{||} some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless, ^c they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the kings house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had ^f made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of bras, and committed ^g them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the kings house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy ^{him} altogether: ^{||} and also in Judah things went well.

13 ^{||} So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned; for ^h Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ⁱ the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he ^{||} prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the [†] book of Shemaiah the prophet, ^k and of Iddo the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and ^l Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abijah, succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam: 13 trusting in God, he overcometh him.

NOW, ^a in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mothers name also was ^b Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah:) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah [†] set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 [¶] And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons ^c by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath ^d rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam ^e made you for gods.

9 ^f Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and ^g have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? ^h so that whosoever cometh [†] to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of ⁱ them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him: and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon ^j their business:

1 Afa, with others, make a solemn covenant with God: 16 he putteth down Maachah his mother from being queen for her idolatry.

And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

2 And he went out to meet Afa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Afa, and all Judah and Benjamin; ^a The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and ^b if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but ^c if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now ^d for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, ^e and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But ^f when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And ^g in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in: but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 ^h And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak; for your work shall be rewarded.

8 ¶ And when Afa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the ⁱ abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 ^j And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him:)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Afa.

11 ^k And they offered unto the LORD ^l the same time of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart, and with all their soul;

13 ^m That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel ⁿ should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and ^o sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about 16 ¶ And also concerning ^p Maachah, the ^q mother of Afa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an ^r idol in a grove: and Afa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But ^s the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Afa was perfect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Jehoshaphat visiteth his kingdom: 5 his instructions to the judges, &c.

And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people, from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 ¶ And he set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city;

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 ¶ Moreover, in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

25 And, when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies and precious jewels, (which they stripped off for themselves,) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of † Berachah: for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the † forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.

31 ¶ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Aſa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD:

33 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away; for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the † book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who † is mentioned in the book of the Kings of Israel.

So Jehoshabeath the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she flew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Jehoiadam maketh Joash king. 12 Athaliah is slain. 16 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elisaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the kings son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the kings house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and whosoever else cometh into the house he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites, and all Judah, did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king Davids, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, (every man having his weapon in his hand,) from the right side of the temple, to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the kings son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

12 Now, when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD.

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar, at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets; also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason!

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges; and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering of the horse-gate, by the kings house, they slew her there.

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORDS people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt-offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? ^a because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones, at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and, when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, [†] at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem. and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [†] Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians ^a came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers: so they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed; and he died. and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; || Zabab the son of Shimmeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabab the son of || Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of ^b the burdens laid upon him, and the [†] repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in || the story of the book of the Kings: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 he executeth justice on the traitors: 5 having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them: 11 he overthroweth the Edomites: 17 he provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 his reign: 27 he is slain by conspiracy.

Amaziah ^a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^b but not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was [†] established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father:

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, ^c The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them ^d from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the [†] army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go [†] home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home [†] in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of Salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But † the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that ^e he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to ^b be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burnt incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that ^e the king said unto him, Art thou made of the kings counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath † determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then † Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The † thistle that ^e was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that ^e was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by † a wild beast that ^e was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to ^e thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, ^e even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for ^e it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of ^e their enemies; because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, ^e both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemeth, which ^e belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was † put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of † Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemeth, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim to † the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And ^e he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obededom, and the treasures of the kings house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, ^e are they not written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away † from following the LORD they † made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish; but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of † Judah.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Ahaz, reigning wickedly, is afflicted by the Syrians: 26 he dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

16. 2.

A Haz ^a was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father;

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover, he || burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt ^b his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore ^c the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to † Damascus: and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For ^d Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all † valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was † next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive, of their brethren, two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, ^e because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bond-men, and bond-women unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now, hear me, therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for, whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives, and the spoil, before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men, ^g which were expressed by name, rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ^h the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ ⁱ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away † captives.

18 ^k The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shochu with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a ^hsin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and ⁱ sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought [†] forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their ^k hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 [†] And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, ^m according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: ⁿ for so was the commandment [†] of the LORD [†] by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments ^o of David, and the priests with ^p the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar: and [†] when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the [†] instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the [†] singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king, and all that were [†] present with him, bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have ^{||} consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and ^q thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and, as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt-offerings; wherefore ^r their brethren the Levites [†] did help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves; ^s for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings, for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a passover.

13 The assembly, destroying the altars of idolatry, keep the feast fourteen days.

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it ^b at that time, ^c because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing [†] pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem; for they had not done it ^a of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters [†] from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of ^d the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who, therefore, gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now, [†] be ye not stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but [†] yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is ^e gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, ^f diverse of Asher, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun, humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, ^g by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose, and took away the ^h altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in [†] their place, after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites:

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified; ⁱ therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even ^k many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, ^l yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one.

19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel, that were [†] present at Jerusalem, kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with [†] loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake [†] comfortably unto all the Levites ^m that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep ⁿ other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [†] ^o did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem : for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose and ^b blessed the people : and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to [†] his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 The people forward in destroying idolatry, 5 in offerings and tithes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes : 20 his sincerity.

NOW, when all this was finished, all Israel that were [†] present went out to the cities of Judah, and ^a brake the [†] images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, [†] until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests, and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings, and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the kings portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new-moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the ^b law of the LORD.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment [†] came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance ^c the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and [†] honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the ^d tithe of holy things, which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them [†] by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him, and said, ^e Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty : for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare [†] chambers in the house of the LORD : and they prepared them ;

12 And brought in the offerings, and the tithes, and the dedicated things, faithfully : over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Alshel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismaiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers [†] under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And [†] next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and She-maiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in [†] the cities of the priests, in [†] their [†] set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small :

16 Besides their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges, according to their courses ;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites [†] from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses ;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation : for in their [†] set office

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 21 An angel destroyeth the Assyrians. 24 Hezekiah's sickness and recovery : 32 he dying Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFTER ^a these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought [†] to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that [†] he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city ; and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that [†] ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water ?

5 Also ^b he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised [†] it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired ^d Millo in the city of David, and made ^{||} darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and [†] spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him : for ^c there be more with us than with him.

8 With him is an ^e arm of flesh ; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people [†] rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¶ ^g After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his [†] power with him) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 ^h Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide ^{||} in the siege in Jerusalem ?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria ?

12 ⁱ Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it ?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands ? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand ?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations, that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand ?

15 Now, therefore, let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him : for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers : how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand ?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 ^k He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 ^l Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20^m And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels † slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and † presents to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ¶ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he ¶ gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah rendered not again, according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 ^p Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself for † the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¶ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of † pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 ¶ This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 ¶ Howbeit, in the business of the † ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who † sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his † goodness, behold, they are written in † the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in † the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the † chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 Manasseh his wicked reign: 11 he is carried into Babylon: 12 upon his prayer he is released: 20 Amon succeedeth him: 21 he being slain by his own servants, 25 Josiah succeedeth him.

Manasseh ^a was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the ^b abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 ¶ For † he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had ^c broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and ^d made groves, and worshipped ^e all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, ^f In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven ^g in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 ^h And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and ⁱ dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And ^k he set a carved image (the idol which he had made) in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, In ^l this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol, out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace-offerings, and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless, the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel:

19 His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers; and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign; and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah his good reign: 3 he destroyeth idolatry: 8 he repaireth the temple, 29 and, causing the law to be read, reneweth the covenant with God.

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images that were on high above them he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphthali, with their mattocks, round about.

The foundations of the temple laid: CHAP. IV. the adversaries labour to hinder it.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for fear was upon them, because of the people of those countries;) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, ^{even} ^d burnt-offerings morning and evening:

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, ^f as it is written, and ^g offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, [†] as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt-offering, both of the new-moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD ^{that were} consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD: but [†] the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the ^{||} carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of ^h Joppa, ⁱ according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now, in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and ^k appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 ^l Then stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of ^{||} Judah. [†] together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, ^m they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ⁿ ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 ^o And they sang together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; ^p because ^{he is} good, ^q for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, ^{who were} ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice, and many shouted aloud for joy;

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Now, when ^a the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that [†] the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel,

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him ^b since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, ^c Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as ^d king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then ^e the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of [†] Ahafuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they ^{unto him} an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote ^{||} Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter ^{was} written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded ² and set up.

12 But ^h after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of ⁱ Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of ^k Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And ^l the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one ^m whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ‖ governor;

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and, being set up, † let him be hanged thereon, † and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Sathar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of † the children of the captivity, kept ¹ the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And ^m offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God which is at Jerusalem; † ^a as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover ^a upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated them-

22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart ^p of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was ^a a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, ^a according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 ^a And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and ^b the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and ^b the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month † began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent [†] of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem;

16 ^m And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will-offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily, with this money, bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem:

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the kings treasure-house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily;

22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred [†] measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 [†] Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or [†] to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 ¶ Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, ^a which hath put such a thing as this in the kings heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem;

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land : yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now, therefore, let us make a covenant with our God † to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise for this matter belongeth unto thee; we also will be with thee; be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, † to swear, that they should do according to this word : and they sware.

6 ¶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came thither he did eat no bread nor drink water : for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem, unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem ;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be † forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two : for † we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God † for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel, and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah, † were employed about this matter ; and Meshullam, and Shabbethai the Levite, helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so : and Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth: 4 his prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month

Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach; ^b the wall of Jerusalem also ^c is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O Lord God of heaven, the great and terrible God, ^a that keepeth covenant, and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments,

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my fathers house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee; and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou command-edst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ^e If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them;
^b though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence,
and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants, and thy people whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name; and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day: and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the kings cupbearer.

before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very fore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ^b Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the [†] queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me, and I set him ^a a time.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the kings forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained ^d to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ^e according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the kings letters. (Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.)

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I ^f came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night, ^g by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the kings pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whether I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of ^h the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the kings words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? ⁱ will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: ^k but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

2 And ^e next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 ^f But the fish-gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and ^g set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

13 ^h The valley-gate repaired Hanan, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto ⁱ the dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-hacerem: he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But ^j the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of ^k Siloah by the kings garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto ^l the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the ^m pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

19 And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury, at the turning of ⁿ the wall.

20 After him Baruch the son of ^o Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of ^p the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz, another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib, even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

23 After him repaired Benjamin, and Hashub, over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, by his house.

24 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad, another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of ^q the wall, even unto the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of ^r the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the kings high house, that was by the ^s court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

26 Moreover, ^t the Nethinims ^u dwelt in ^v Ophel, unto ^w the place over against ^x the water-gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

28 ^y From above the horse-gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

C H A P. IV.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth: 7 he setteth a watch.

BUT it came to pass, ^a that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren, and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they † fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are † despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5 And ^b cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem † were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and † to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless, we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, ¶ From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I † in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, ^c and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded † by his side, and so builded: and he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another:

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: ^d our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, ¶ saying that every one put them off for washing.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah causeth restitution: 14 he forbeaveth his own allowance.

Before Christ 445.

And there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the kings tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards:

5 Yet now ^a our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry, and these words.

7 Then † I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, ^c Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them:

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have ^d redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk ^e in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn; I pray you let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, ^f and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also ^g I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out and ^h emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the Lord. And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year ⁱ even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors, that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people; but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 Think upon me, my God, for go d, according to all that I have done for this people.

1 Sanballat practiseth to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished.

17 Secret intelligence between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and ^j Gessem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein, (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates.)

2 That Sanballat and Gessem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^k Ono: but they thought to do me mischief.

that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen; and || Gashmu saith it, ^d that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now, therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now, therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 ¶ Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report; that they might reproach me.

14 ^e My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and on the prophets Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover, in those days, the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my || words to him: and Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah.

5 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 8 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 46 and of the Nethinims.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters, and the singers, and the Levites, were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler ^a of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many:)

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and, while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [†] large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 ^b These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomons servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy; but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And || the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

66 || The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

C H A P. VIII.

The religious manner of reading and hearing the law.

And all ^a the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was ^b before the water-gate; and they spake unto Ezra the ^c scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, ^d upon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein, before the street that was before the water-gate, [†] from the morning until mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand: and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a [†] pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiiah, and Mithael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the [†] sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people:) and when he opened it all the people stood up.

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God: and all the people answered, Amen, amen, with lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jehua, and Bani, and She-rebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book, in the law of God, distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

scribe, ¹ and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ² This day is holy unto the LORD your God; ³ mourn not nor weep. For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

¹² And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

¹³ [¶] And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even [¶] to understand the words of the law.

¹⁶ [¶] So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, ¹⁷ and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

¹⁷ And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so: and there was very great gladness.

¹⁸ Also [¶] day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God: and they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was [†] a solemn assembly, [°] according unto the manner.

NOW, in the twenty and fourth day of ⁺ this month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, ⁺ and earth upon them.

² And ⁺ the seed of Israel separated themselves from all [†] strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

⁴ [¶] Then stood up upon the [¶] stairs, ¹ of the Levites, Joshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chemai, and ² cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

⁹ ¹ And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and ² heardest their cry by the Red sea:

11 ^p And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land: and their persecutors thou throwest into the deeps, ^a as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou ^r leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 ^s Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments and [†] true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And [†] gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and ^a broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should ^a go in to possess the land [†] which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed ^a a captain to return to their bondage: but thou ^{art} [†] a God ready to pardon, ^a gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, ^a when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou, in thy manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the ^b pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy ^c good Spirit to instruct them, and with-heldest not thy ^d manna from their mouth, and gavest them ^e water for their thirst.

21 Yea, ^f forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing: their ^g clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of ^h Shon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multiplied thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So ^a the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them [†] as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, ^{||} wells digged, vineyards and olive-yards, and [†] fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and [†] became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and ^m cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy ⁿ prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

27 ^o Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest [†] them from heaven; and, according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest [†] they did evil again before thee: therefore lestest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest [†] them from heaven: and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies;

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (^p which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and [†] withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou [†] forbear them, and testifiedst [†] against them water, but ^b hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ^c howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ^d that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this Eliashib the priest, ^e having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared ^f for him a great chamber, ^g where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, on the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, (^h which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: ⁱ for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and ^j after certain days || obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that ^k the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers that did the work were fled every one to ^l his field.

11 Then ^m I contended I with the rulers, and said, ⁿ Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their ^o place.

12 ^p Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the || treasuries.

13 And I made treasuries over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe; and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and ^q next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and ^r their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 ^s Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my ^t good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the || office thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses, as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 ^u Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: ^v and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again I will lay hands on you: From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites, that ^w they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the || greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that ^x had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and ^y could not speak in the Jews language, but according to the language ^z of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and || cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their

C H A P. II.

1 Out of many fair virgins a queen is to be choſen. 15 Eſther elected.

AFTER theſe things, when the wrath of king Ahaſuerus was appeaſed, he remembered Vaſhti, and what ſhe had done, and what was decreed againſt her.

2 Then ſaid the kings ſervants, that miniſtered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins ſought for the king :

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shuſhan the palace, to the houſe of the women, † unto the cuſtody of † Hega the kings chamberlain, keeper of the women, and let their things for purification be given them :

4 And let the maiden which pleaſeth the king be queen inſtead of Vaſhti. And the thing pleaſed the king; and he did ſo.

5 ¶ Now in Shuſhan the palace there was a certain Jew, whoſe name was Mordecai, the ſon of Jair, the ſon of Shimei, the ſon of Kili, a Benjaminite :

6 † Who had been carried away from Jeruſalem with the captivity which had been carried away with † Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he † brought up Hadaſſah, (that is Eſther.) † his uncles daughter : for ſhe had neither father nor mother, and the maid was † fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai (when her father and mother were dead) took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to paſs, when the kings commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shuſhan the palace, to the cuſtody of Hega, that Eſther was brought alſo unto the kings houſe to the cuſtody of Hega keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleaſed him, and ſhe obtained kindneſs of him, and he ſpeedily gave her her things for purification, with † ſuch things as belonged to her, and ſeven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the kings houſe : and † he preferred her and her maids unto the beſt place of the houſe of the women.

10 † Eſther had not ſhewed her people nor her kindred : ſo Mordecai had charged her that ſhe ſhould not ſhew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens houſe, † to know how Eſther did, and what ſhould become of her.

12 ¶ Now, when every maids turn was come to go in to king Ahaſuerus, after that ſhe had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for ſo were the days of their purifications accompliſhed, to wit, ſix months with oil of myrrh, and ſix months with ſweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women.)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatſoever ſhe deſired was given her to go with her out of the houſe of the women unto the kings houſe.

14 In the evening ſhe went, and on the morrow ſhe returned into the ſecond houſe of the women, to the cuſtody of Shuſhan, the kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines :

he came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, ^d the daughter of Ahasui, the uncle of Mordecai, (who had taken her for his daughter,) was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the kings chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus, into his house royal, in the tenth month, (which is the month Tebeth,) in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and ¶ favour † in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esthers feast; and he made a † release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the kings gate.

20 ^e Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when he was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the kings gate, two of the kings chamberlains, ¶ Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept † the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecais name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter it was found out, therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in ^e the book of the Chronicles before the king.

C H A P. III.

Haman advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews.

After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha ^a the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the kings servants that were in the kings gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai ^b bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the kings servants, which were in the kings gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the ^e kings commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai his matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, (that is the month Nisan,) in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, ^d they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman, from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad, and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and ^e their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the kings laws; therefore it is not † for the kings profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written † that they may be destroyed: and I will † pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the kings treasuries.

10 And the king ^f took ^h his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews ¶ enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 ^b Then were the kings ¶ scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the kings lieutenants, and to the governors, that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, ⁱ according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the kings provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, ^k in one day, even upon ^l the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, (which is the month Adar,) and ^m to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

C H A P. IV.

1 Mordecai and the Jews mourn.

15 Esther appointeth a fast.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth ^a with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the kings gate: for none might enter into the kings gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the kings commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and ^b many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Esthers maids and her ^c chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him; but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the kings chamberlains, ^d whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the city, which was before the kings gate:

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the kings treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them:

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the kings servants, and the people of the kings provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court who is not called, ^e there is one law of his to put him to death, except such ^f to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esthers words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the kings house more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there ^g † enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place: but thou and thy fathers house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer;

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are ^h † present in Shushan, and fast ye ⁱ for me, and neither eat nor drink ^j three days, night nor day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; ^k and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai ^l † went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Esther, obtaining the kings favour, and promised her request, she inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet.

NOW it came to pass, ^m on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in ⁿ the inner court of the kings house, over against the kings house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? ^a it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, ^b What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee : and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is ;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and ^c to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day joyful, and with a glad heart : but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood nor up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself : and when he came home he sent and ^d called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ^e the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said, moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself ; and to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon ; then go thou in morn-with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman : and he caused the gallows to be made.

1 Ahasuerus rewardeth Mordecai :
11 Haman doeth him honour.

ON that night ^f could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring ^g the book of records of the Chronicles : and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of ^h Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the ⁱ door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 ¶ And the king said, Who is in the court? (Now Haman was come into ^j the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in : and the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man ^k whom the king delighteth to honour? (Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?)

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man ^l whom the king delighteth to honour,

4 For we are ^bsold, I and my people, [†]to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we had been sold for bond-men and bond-women I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the kings damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered, and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [†]that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, [†]The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid [¶]before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king, arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace-garden; and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen: for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace-garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon ^cthe bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also [†]before me in the house? As the word went out of the kings mouth they ^dcovered Hamans face.

of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the kings provinces! Now ^d what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according unto this days decree, and [†] let Hamans ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Hamans ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and flew three hundred men at Shushan; ^e but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the kings provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and flew of their foes seventy and five thousand (but they laid not their hands on the prey)

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day [†] of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar ^e a day of gladness and feasting, ^g and a good day, and of ^h sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep ⁱ the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of ^k sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and [†] had cast Pur, (that is, the lot,) to [†] consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But [†] when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of || Pur: therefore, for all the words of [†] this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not [†] fail, that they would keep these two days, according to their writing, and according to their appointed time, every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered, and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not [†] fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them [†] perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with [†] all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed [†] for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

C H A P. I.

I The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children: 6 Satan, appearing before God, by calumnia-tion, obtaineth leave to tempt Job.T HERE was a man ^a in the land of Uz, whose name was ^b Job; and that man was ^c perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.3 His ^{||} substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great ^{||} household; so that this man was the greatest of all the [†] men of the east.4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, ^d and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ^e cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job [†] continually.6 ¶ Now ^f there was a day ^g when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and [†] Satan came also [†] among them.7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From ^h going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.8 And the LORD said unto Satan, [†] Hast thou considered my servant Job, that *there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?*9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?10 Hast thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side?
thou hast blessed the work of hishands, and his ^{||} substance is increased in the land :11 ⁱ But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, [†] and he will curse thee to thy face.12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy [†] power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house :14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them;15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.16 While he was yet speaking,
there came also another, and said,
^{||} The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.17 While he was yet speaking,
there came also another, and said,
The Chaldeans made out three bands, and [†] fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword: and I only am escaped alone
to tell thee.18 While he was yet speaking,
there came also another, and said,
Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house :19 And, behold, there came a great wind [†] from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead: and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.20 Then Job arose, ^k and rent his ^{||} mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,21 And said, Naked came I out of my mothers womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and 24 For [†] his sighing cometh [†] before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For [†] the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

CH A P. IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion: 7 he teacheth Gods judgments not to be for the righteous, but for the wicked: 12 his fearful vision, to humble the excellencies of creatures before God.

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and said,

2 If we assay [†] to commune with thee wilt thou be grieved? but [†] who can with-hold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou ^a hast strengthened [†] the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, ^b they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and [†] by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and ^c the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 ^d The old lion perilleth for lack of prey, and the stout lions whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was [†] secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 ^e In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear [†] came upon me, and trembling, which made [†] all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes; [†] there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 ^f Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he ^g put no trust in his servants; [†] and his angels he charged with folly:

19 ^h How much less in them that dwell in ⁱ houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 ^k They are [†] destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 ^l Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? ^m they die even without wisdom.

CH A P. V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of Gods correction.

Call now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou [†] turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and [†] envy slayeth the silly one.

4 ^b His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and ^c the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although [†] affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground:

7 Yet man is born unto [†] trouble, as [†] the sparks fly upward

C H A P. IX.

1 Job, acknowledging Gods justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 2 Mans innocency is not to be condemned by affliction.

THEN Job answered, and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth : but how should ^a man be just || with God ?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 ^b He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength : who hath hardened himself against him and hath prospered ?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not ; which overturneth them in his anger ;

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble ;

7 Which commandeth the sun and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars ;

8 ^c Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the [†] waves of the sea ;

9 ^d Which maketh [†] Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south ;

10 ^e Which doeth great things past finding out, yea, and wonders without number.

11 ^f Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not : he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 ^g Behold, he taketh away, [†] who can hinder him ? who will say unto him, What doest thou ?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, ^h the [†] proud helpers do stoop under him :

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him ?

15 ⁱ Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me, yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds ^k without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong : and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead ?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me : if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul : I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, ^l He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked : ^m he covereth the faces of the judges thereof ; if not, where and who is he ?

25 Now ⁿ my days are swifter than a post ; they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the [†] swift ships : ^o as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 ^p If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself ;

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain ?

30 ^q If I wash myself with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean ;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall || abhor me.

CHAP. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself: 17 he proveth by tradition the disquietude of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
2 Should a wise man utter † vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches where-with he can do no good?

4 Yea, † thou castest off fear, and restrainest || prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth † uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty:

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I; yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? ^a or wast thou made before the hills?

8 ^b Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 ^c With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 ^d What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 ^e Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight;

16 ^f How much more abominable and filthy is man, ^g which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told ^h from their fathers, and have not hid it;

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, ⁱ and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 † A dreadful sound is in his ears; ^k in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He ^l wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that ^m the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 ⁿ Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and ^o by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity, for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 It shall be || accomplished ^p before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 ^q They conceive mischief, and bring forth || vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

1 Job, complaining of his friends re-enough in him to gratify it: 21, 28 he

2 How long will ye vex my soul,

1 Eliphaz sheweth that mans goodness profiteth not God: 5 he accuseth Job of diverse sins: 21 he exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness,

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them, as after a thief.)

7 Among the bushes they brayed ; under the nettles they were gathered

8 They were children of fools, yea, viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their song; yea,
I am their by-word.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, † and spare not to spit in 11 Because he hath loosed my cord and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise they † raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path ; they set for-14 They came upon me as a wide they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me :
they pursue † my soul as the wind; and 16 And now my soul is poured out upon me ; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed : it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me ; I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art † become cruel to opposhest thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind ;

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me ; and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not ; the days of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the fun ; I stood up, and I cried in the congregation

29 I am a brother to dragons, and ing, and my organ into the voice of

CHAP. XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I Made a covenant with mine eyes ;
I why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit ;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands ;

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat ; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbours door ;

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime :
yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me ;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and, when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

CHAP. XXXII.

Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends: 11 he reproveth them for not satisfying of Job: 16 his zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased [†] to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel ^a the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram; against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified [†] himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had [†] waited till Job had spoken, because they were [†] elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said, I am [†] young, ^b and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and [†] durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man; and ^c the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise; neither do the aged understand judgment.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 Elisha offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job: 8 he blameth Job for his complaints against God in not giving man an account of his ways: 31 he inciteth Job to attention.

Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken † in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up:

6 ^b Behold, I am † according to thy wish in Gods stead; I also am † formed out of the clay.

7 ^c Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken † in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 * I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, ^e he counteth me for his enemy, 11 ^f He putteth my feet in the flocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou strive against him? for † he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 ^g For God speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 ^h Then † he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may withdraw man from his † purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life † from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 ⁱ So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul † dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness;

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit; I have found † a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher † than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him; and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 || He looketh upon men; and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not,

28 || He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

C H A P. XXXV.

I Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

Elihu spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than Gods?

3 For ^a thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have || if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 + I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 ^b Look unto the heavens, and see: and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou lianest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 ^c If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty:

10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker, who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 ^e There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 ^f Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 ^g Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, || he hath visited in his anger; yet || he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 ^h Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

C H A P. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways: 16 how Jobs sins hinder Gods blessings. 24 Gods works are to be magnified.

Elihu also proceeded, and said, 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee + that I have yet to speak on Gods behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: ^a he is mighty in strength and + wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the || poor.

7 ^b He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ^c with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And ^d if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction,

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded:

10 ^e He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall ^f spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures:

12 But if they obey not, + they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart ^g heap up wrath; they cry not when he bindeth them:

14 ^h + They die in youth, and their life is among the || unclean.

15 He delivereth the || poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression:

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and + that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: || judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then ^k a great ransom cannot + deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: ^l who teacheth like him?

23 ^m Who hath enjoined him his way? or ⁿ who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

Psal. 139.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not; neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof, 28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth it the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning it the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works: 15 his wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth; he thundereth with the voice of his excellency, and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man, that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind, and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given; and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth it his bright cloud, 12 And it is turned round about by his counsels; that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds; but the wind passeth and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice; he will not afflict.

24 Men do, therefore, fear him; he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 God challengeth Job to answer. 4 God by his mighty works convinceth Job of ignorance, 31 and of imbecility.

THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

7 ¶ And it was so, that, after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering, and my servant Job shall pray for you; for † him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted † Job.

10 ¶ And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD † gave Job † twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first || Jemima, and the name of the second || Kezia, and the name of the third || Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 ¶ After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old, and full of days.

stancy in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God, &c.

To the chief musician upon Nehiloth. A psalm of David.

Give ear to my words, O LORD;
consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness; neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions: for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment: 11 he inciteth others to praise him: 13 he prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

¶ To the chief musician upon Muth-labben. A psalm of David.

I Will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou sittest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end; and thou hast destroyed cities: their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. ¶ Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD, let not man prevail; let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD; that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrages of the wicked: 12 he prayeth for redress: 16 he professeth his confidence.

Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his hearts desire, and he blesteth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, and of deceit, and fraud; under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking-places of the villages; in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD: O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thine hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

37. 17.

15 ^p Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 ^a The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt || prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear;

18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more || oppress.

2 For, lo, ^b the wicked bend their bow, ^c they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may ^d privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 ^d If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

3 Consider, and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, ^b lest I sleep the sleep of death;

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

¶ To the chief musician. A psalm of David*, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul : and he said,

I ^a Will love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD ^{is} my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer : my God, [†] my strength, ^b in whom I will trust : my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, ^c who ^{is} worthy to be praised ; so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [†] ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The || sorrows of hell compassed me about ; the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God : he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 ^e Then the earth shook and trembled ; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [†] out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured : coals were kindled by it.

9 ^f He bowed the heavens also, and came down ; and darkness was under his feet.

10 ^g And he rode upon a chernub, and did fly ; yea, ^h he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place ; ⁱ his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 ^k At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed ; hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave ^l his voice ; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 ^m Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 ⁿ Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 ^o He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of || many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me : for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity : but the LORD was my stay.

19 ^p He brought me forth also into a large place ; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 ^q The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness ; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright [†] before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 ^r Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands [†] in his eyesight.

25 ^s With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful ; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright ;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure ; and ^t with the froward thou wilt || shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people ; but wilt bring down ^u high looks.

28 ^x For thou wilt light my || candle ; the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have || run through a troop ; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, ^y his way is perfect : ^z the word of the LORD is || tried : he is a buckler ^a to all those that trust in him.

31 ^b For who is God save the LORD ? or who is a rock save our God ?

32 It is God that ^c girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 ^d He maketh my feet like hinds feet, and ^e setteth me upon my high places.

34 ^f He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

42 Then did I beat them as small as the dust before the wind; I did ⁱ cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

1 The creatures shew Gods glory; 7 the word, his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

|| To the chief musician.

THe ^u heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language || where their voice is not heard.

4 ^b || Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun;

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, ^c and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 ^d The || law of the LORD is perfect, || converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: ^e the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are † true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, ^f yea, than much fine gold; ^g sweeter also than honey, and † the honeycomb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 ^h Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from ⁱ secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; ^k let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from || the great transgression.

4 b Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks || at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For c † his anger endureth but a

¹ I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

⁷ Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

⁸ I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: † I will guide thee with mine eye.

⁹ Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

¹¹ Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous; and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

¹ God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

¹ Rejoice ^a in the LORD, O ye righteous; for ^b praise is comely for the upright.

² Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery, ^c and an instrument of ten strings.

³ Sing unto him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise:

⁴ For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

⁵ He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

⁶ By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and ^b all the host of them ^a by the breath of his mouth.

⁷ He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

⁸ Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him:

⁹ For ^b he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

¹⁰ The LORD † bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

¹¹ The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart † to all generations.

¹² Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

¹³ The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

¹⁴ From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

¹⁵ He fashioneth their hearts alike; ^a he considereth all their works.

¹⁶ There is no king saved by the multitude of an host; a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

¹⁷ An horse is a vain thing for safety; neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

¹⁸ Behold, the eye of the LORD is ^a upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

¹⁹ To deliver their soul from death, and ^a to keep them alive in famine.

²⁰ Our soul waiteth for the LORD: ^a he is our help and our shield.

²¹ For our heart shall rejoice in him; because we have trusted in his holy name.

²² Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

P S A L M XXXIV.

¹ David praiseeth God, and exhorteth others thereunto by his experience.

⁸ They are blessed that trust in God: ^a he exhorteth to the fear of God.

¹ A psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before || Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

¹ Will ^a bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

² My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: ^b the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

³ O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

⁴ I fought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

⁵ || They looked unto him, and were lightened; and their faces were not ashamed.

⁶ This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

⁷ The angel of the LORD ^d encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

⁸ O taste and see that the LORD is good: ^a blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

⁹ O fear

ⁱ David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies confusion : 11 he complaineth of their wrongful dealing : 22 thereby he inciteth God against them.

¶ A psalm of David.

^a PLead ^a my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me : fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me : say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 ^b Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul : let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 ^c Let them be as chaff before the wind : and let the angel of the LORD chafe them.

5 ^eMany, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, ^fand thy thoughts which are to us-ward; ^{||}they cannot be reckon-more than can be numbered.

6 ^hSacrifice and offering thou didst

God; yea, thy law is [†]within my 9 ^kI have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have 10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: I have declared have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 With-hold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: [†]let thy

1 Davids zeal to serve God in the temple:
5 he encourageth his soul to trust in God.

¶ To the chief musician, || Maschil, for the sons of Korah.

AS the hart || panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things
I pour out my soul in me; for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy-day.

5 Why art thou || cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquiet-ed in me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet || praise him || for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from || the hill Mizar.

7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterpouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will || command his loving-kindness in the day-time, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a || sword in my bones mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

P S A L M XLIII.

1 David, praying to be restored to the temple, promiseth to serve God joyfully: 5 he encourageth his soul. &c.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an || ungodly nation: O deliver me || from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off?
why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward, and put to shame, that wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame, that say unto me, Aha, aha!

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually,
The LORD be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

1 Gods care of the poor. 4 David complaineth of his enemies treachery.

¶ To the chief musician.

A psalm of David.

Blessed is he that considereth || the poor; the LORD will deliver him || in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and || thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing; thou wilt || make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me; heal my soul: for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me;
When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise || my hurt.

8 ¶ An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth, he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, || mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath || lifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favorest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and amen.

O ^a Clap your hands, all ye people; ^b shout unto God with the voice of triumph:

2 For the LORD most High is terrible; ^c he is a great King over all the earth.

3 ^d He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob, whom he loved. Selah.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 ^f For God is the King of all the earth; ^g sing ye praises || with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

9 || The princes of the people are gathered together, ^h even the people of the God of Abraham; ⁱ for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

1 The psalmist earnestly persuadeth all to join him in his meditations. 5 The vanity of trusting in worldly wealth.

[¶] To the chief musician. A psalm ^{||} for the sons of Korah.

Hear this, all ye people ; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world :
2 Both ^a low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom ; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 ^b I will incline mine ear to a parable ; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about ?

6 They that ^c trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches ;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him ;

8 (For ^d the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever ;)

9 That he should still live for ever, and ^e not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that ^f wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, ^g and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places [†] to all generations ; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, ^h man being in honour abideth not ; he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly ; yet their posterity [†] approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave ; death shall feed on them ; and ⁱ the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning ; ^k and their ^{||} beauty shall consume ^{||} in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul [†] from the power of ^{||} the grave ; for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased :

17 [†] For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away : his glory shall not descend after him ;

18 Though [†] while he lived ^m he blessed his soul, (and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thyself,)

19 [†] He shall go to the generation of his fathers : they shall never see light.

13 ^k He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through ; and ^l he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 ^m In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 ⁿ He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought ^o streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him, by ^p provoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And ^q they tempted God in their heart, by asking meat for their lust.

19 ^r Yea, they spake against God : they said, Can God [†] furnish a table in the wilderness ?

20 ^s Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed ; can he give bread also ? can he provide flesh for his people ?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and ^t was wroth : so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel ;

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation :

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, ^u and opened the doors of heaven, 24 ^v And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 ^w Man did eat angels food : he sent them meat to the full.

26 ^x He caused an east wind [†] to blow in the heaven, and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and [†] feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea ;

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 ^y So they did eat, and were well filled : for he gave them their own desire.

30 They were not estranged from their lust : but, ^z while their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and [†] smote down the ^{||} chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this [†] they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 [†] Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 [†] When he slew them, then they sought him ; and they returned and enquired early after God :

35 And they remembered that [†] God was their Rock, and the high God their Redeemer.

36 [†] Nevertheless, they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lyed unto him with their tongues.

37 For [†] their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 [†] But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not ; yea, many a time [†] turned he his anger away, [†] and did not stir up all his wrath :

39 For [†] he remembered ^m that they were but flesh ; [†] a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they ^{||} ^o provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert !

41 Yea, [†] they turned back and tempted God, and limited the holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them ^{||} from the enemy :

10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up || unto their own hearts lust; and they walked in their own counsels.

13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should have || submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat; and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

P S A L M LXXXII.

1 The psalmist, having exhorted the judges, 5 and reproved their negligence, 8 prayeth God to judge.

God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 Defend the poor and fatherless; do justice to the afflicted and needy;

4 Deliver the poor and needy; rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High:

7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

P S A L M LXXXIII.

1 A complaint to God of the enemies conspiracies. 9 A prayer against them that oppress the church.

Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult; and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one consent; they are confederate against thee:

6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb; yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna;

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire, 15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame and perish:

18 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most High over all the earth.

P S A L M LXXXIV.

1 The prophet, longing for the communion of the sanctuary, 4 sheweth how blessed they are that dwell therein:

8 he prayeth to be restored unto it.

To the chief musician upon Gittith. A psalm || for the sons of Korah.

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well: the rain also shall fill the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength; every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our Shield, and look upon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand: I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

P S A L M LXXXV.

The psalmist, out of the experience of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof: 8 he promiseth to wait thereon, in the confidence of Gods goodness.

To the chief musician. A psalm for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints; but let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have killed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him, and shall set us in the way of his steps.

A prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me; for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O LORD: for I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, LORD, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O LORD; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations, whom thou hast made, shall come and worship before thee, O LORD; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before them.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God, 4 for his great works, 6 for his judgments on the wicked, 10 and for his goodness to the godly : 12 their felicity described, &c.

¶ A Psalm or song for the sabbath-day.

IT is a ^a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High :

2 To shew forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness [†] every night,

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery ; || upon the harp with [†] a solemn sound.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work ; I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 ^b O LORD, how great are thy works ! and ^c thy thoughts are very deep.

6 ^d A brutish man knoweth not ; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When ^e the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish ; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever :

8 ^f But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish ; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered ;

10 But ^g my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn : I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 ^h Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies ; and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 ⁱ The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree ; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age ; they shall be fat and [†] flourishing ;

15 To shew that the LORD is upright : ^k he is my rock, and ^l there is no righteousness in him.

P S A L M XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE ^a LORD reigneth ; ^b he is clothed with majesty ; the LORD is clothed with strength, ^c wherewith he hath girded himself : ^d the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

2 ^e Thy throne is established [†] of old : thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice ; the floods lift up their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure : holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, [†] for ever.

P S A L M XCIV.

1 The prophet, calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety : 8 he teacheth Gods providence : 12 he sheweth the blessedness of affliction. 16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD [†] God, ^a to whom vengeance belongeth ; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, [†] shew thyself.

2 ^b Lift up thyself, thou ^c Judge of the earth ; render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph ?

4 How long shall they ^d utter and speak hard things ? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves ?

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage :

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless :

7 ^e Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 ^f Understand, ye brutish among the people ; and, ye fools, when will ye be wise ?

9 ^g He that planted the ear, shall he not hear ? he that formed the eye, shall he not see ?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct ? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know ?

11 ^h The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 ⁱ Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law ;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

3 I will set no [†]wicked thing before mine eyes: ^aI hate the work of them ^bthat turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me; I will not know a wicked person.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh ^{||} in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that telleth lies [†]shall not tarry in my sight.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint: 12 he taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God. 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded. 23 David sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeable nature of God.

2 A prayer ^{||} of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 ^aHide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily.

3 ^bFor my days are consumed ^{||} like smoke, and ^cmy bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, ^dmy bones cleave to my ^{||} skin.

6 ^eI am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and ^fmingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 ^gMy days are like a shadow that declineth; and ^hI am withered like grass.

12 But ⁱthou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever, and ^kthy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in ^lher stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come; and ^mthe people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For ⁿhe hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 ^oTo hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose [†]those that are appointed to death;

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He [†]weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24 ^pI said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

25 ^qOf old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 ^rThey shall perish, but thou shalt [†]endure; yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 ^sThe children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

BLESS ^athe LORD, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

5 ^e Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things: so that ^f thy youth is renewed like the eagles.

6 ^g The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 ^h He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 ⁱ The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and ^j plenteous in mercy.

9 ^k He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 ^l He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13 ^o Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; ^p he remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, ^q his days are as grass; ^r as a flower of the field so he flourisheth:

19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

13 ^r He watereth the hills from his chambers: ^s the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

15 And ^u wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ^v oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth mans heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon ^w which he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir-trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and the rocks for the conies.

19 ¹ He appointeth the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down.

23 Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour, until the evening.

24 ⁴ O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships; there is that leviathan, whom thou hast [†] made to play therein.

27 ⁵ These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled; ² thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 ⁶ Thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created; and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD [†] shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth; ^b he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 ^c I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise unto my God while I have my being.

23 ^u Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen ^x stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised ^y † the pleasant land; they believed not his word;

25 ^z But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD :

26 ^a Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness :

27 † ^b To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 ^c They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them.

30 ^d Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment; and so the plague was stayed :

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32 ^e They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their fakes :

33 ^f Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 ^g They did not destroy the nations, ^h concerning whom the LORD commanded them ;

35 ⁱ But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols ; ^k which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, ^l they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan : and ^m the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and ⁿ went a whoring with their own inventions :

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, inasmuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen : and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 ^o Many times did he deliver them ; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were ^p brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when ^q he heard their cry :

45 ^r And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 ^s He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 ^t Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

† Heb.
Hallelujah.

† Praise ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD are great, fought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious; and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: ^a the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given [†] meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment; ^b all his commandments are sure.

8 ^c They [†] stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

10 ^d The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; ^h a good understanding have all they [†] that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

1 Because God is truly glorious, and idols are vanity, he exhorteth to confidence in God. 12 God is to be praised for his blessings.

Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truths sake.

P S A L M CXVII.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

O ^a Praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.
² For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy. 5 The psalmist sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 The coming of Christ's kingdom typified.

O ^a Give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

² Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
³ Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

⁴ Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

⁵ ^c I called upon the LORD [†] in distress: the LORD answered me, and ^d set me in a large place.

⁶ ^e The LORD is [†] on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

⁷ ^f The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

⁸ ^g It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man:

⁹ ^h It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.

¹⁰ All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I [†] destroy them.

¹¹ They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹² They compassed me about ⁱ like bees; they are quenched ^k as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will [†] destroy them.

¹³ Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

¹⁴ ^l The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

¹⁵ The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

¹⁶ The right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

¹⁷ ^m I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

¹⁸ The LORD hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

¹⁹ ⁿ Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go in to them, and I will praise the LORD:

²⁰ ^o This gate of the LORD, ^p into which the righteous shall enter.

²¹ I will praise thee; for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

²² ^q The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

²³ ^r This is the LORDS doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

²⁴ This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

²⁵ Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

²⁶ ^s Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

²⁷ God is the LORD, which hath shewed us ^t light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

²⁸ Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

²⁹ O give thanks unto the LORD: for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Blessed are the ^u undefiled in the law, ^a who walk in the law of the LORD.

⁴ Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

⁵ Oh that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

⁶ ^c Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

⁷ ^d I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned [†] thy righteous judgments.

⁸ I will keep thy statutes: O for sake me not utterly.

10. 29.

105 ^a Thy word is a || lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

106 ^b I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

107 I am afflicted very much : quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.

108 Accept, I beseech thee, the free-will-offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and ^d teach me thy judgments.

109 ^e My soul is continually in my hand : yet do I not forget thy law.

110 ^f The wicked have laid a snare for me ; yet I erred not from thy precepts.

111 ^g Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever : for ^h they are the rejoicing of my heart.

112 I have inclined mine heart [†] to perform thy statutes alway even unto the end.

S A M E C H.

113 I hate vain thoughts : but thy law do I love.

114 ⁱ Thou art my hiding-place, and my shield : I hope in thy word.

115 ^k Depart from me, ye evil-doers ; for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live : and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe : and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes : for their deceit is falsehood.

119 Thou [†] puttest away all the wicked of the earth ^l like dross : therefore I love thy testimonies.

120 ^m My flesh trembleth for fear of thee, and I am afraid of thy judgments.

A I N.

121 I have done judgment and justice : leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be surety for thy servant for good : let not the proud oppress me.

123 ⁿ Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.

124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and ^o teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy servant ; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.

126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work : for they have made void thy law.

127 ^p Therefore I love thy commandments above gold, yea, above fine gold.

128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right ; and I ^q hate every false way.

P E.

129 Thy testimonies are wonderful : therefore doth my soul keep them.

130 The entrance of thy words giveth light, ^r it giveth understanding unto the simple.

131 I opened my mouth, and panted : for I longed for thy commandments.

132 ^s Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, ^t [†] as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.

133 ^u Order my steps in thy word ; and ^x let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Deliver me from the oppression of man : so will I keep thy precepts.

135 ^y Make thy face to shine upon thy servant ; and ^z teach me thy statutes.

136 ^a Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.

T S A D D I.

137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments.

138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are [†] righteous, and very [†] faithful.

139 ^b My zeal hath [†] consumed me : because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 ^c Thy word is very [†] pure : therefore thy servant loveth it.

141 I am small and despised ; yet do not I forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is refined.

143 Trouble and anguish have [†] taken hold on me ; yet thy commandments are my delights.

144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting : give me understanding, and I shall live.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates ; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 [†] He maketh peace in thy borders, and ^m filleth thee with the ⁿ finest of the wheat.

7 ¶ The fear of the LORD is || the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 ° My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For ^d they shall be † an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us ° lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause;

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave, and whole as those that go down into the pit;

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse.

15 My son, ^f walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16 ^g For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood:

17 (Surely in vain the net is spread † in the sight of any bird:)

18 And they lay wait for their ^{own} blood, they lurk privily for their ^{own} lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ † ^h Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn ye at my reproof; behold, I will pour out my Spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 ¶ ⁱ Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye ^k have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 ^l I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

27 When ^m your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

28 ⁿ Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not ° choose the fear of the LORD:

30 ^p They would none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof:

31 Therefore ^q shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the || turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But ^r whose hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and ^s shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and ^a hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and † listest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ^b If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ° For the LORD giveth wisdom; out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up found wisdom for the righteous: ^d he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul,

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ° understanding shall keep thee;

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

21 [†] My son, let not them depart from thine eyes : keep sound wisdom and discretion :

22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and ^u grace to thy neck.

23 ^v Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

24 ^w When thou liest down thou shalt not be afraid : yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

25 ^x Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 [†] With-hold not good from [†] them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 ^y Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give ; when thou hast it by thee.

29 ^z Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 [†] Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 [†] Envy thou not [†] the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD : [†] but his secret is with the righteous.

33 [†] The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked : but he blebseth the habitation of the just.

C H A P. IV.

1 Solomon, to persuade obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked: 20 he exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

Hear, ^a ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my fathers son, ^b tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 ^c He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words:
^d keep my commandments and live.

5 ¶ Get wisdom, get understanding; forget it not, neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and, with all thy getting, get understanding.

8 ^e Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour when thou dost embrace her.

9 She shall give to thine head ^f an ornament of grace; || a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

12 When thou goest, ^g thy steps shall not be straitened; ^h and when thou runnest thou shalt not stumble.

13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

14 ¶ ⁱ Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 ^k For they sleep not except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 ^l But the path of the just ^m is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 ⁿ The way of the wicked is as darkness; they know not at what they stumble.

20 ¶ My son, attend to my words, incline thine ear unto my sayings:

21 ^o Let them not depart from thine eyes; ^p keep them in the midst of thine heart:

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and ^q health to all their flesh.

23 ¶ Keep thy heart ^r with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee ^s a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and || let all thy ways be established.

27 ^t Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy feet from evil.

C H A P. V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom: 3 he sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot: 15 he exhort-eth to contentedness, liberality, and chastity. 22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding;

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

3 ¶ ^a For the lips of a strange woman drop as a honey-comb, and her mouth is ^b smoother than oil:

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, ^c sharp as a two-edged sword.

5 ^d Her feet go down to death;
her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now, therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house;

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

15 ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed; and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

19 ¶ Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts fasten thee at all times; and † be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 ¶ For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 ¶ His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his † sins.

23 ¶ He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

C H A P. VI.

1 Against swetiship, 6 idleness, 12 and mischievousness. 20 The blessings of obedience. 25 The mischiefs of whoredom.

MY son, ^a if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

4 ¶ Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 ¶ How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 ¶ So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 ¶ He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; † he † soweth discord:

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate; yea, seven are an abomination † unto him:

17 ¶ A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, † feet that be swift in running to mischief, 19 ¶ A false witness that speaketh lyes, † and him that soweth discord among brethren.

20 ¶ My son, keep thy fathers commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21 ¶ Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 ¶ When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, † it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 ¶ For the commandment is a † lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life;

24 ¶ To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery † of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ¶ Lull not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids:

26 For † by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread; and † the adulterers will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbours wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry:

31 But if he be found † he shall restore seven-fold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman † lacketh † understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

C H A P. VII.

1 Solomon persuadeth to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom: 6 in an example of his own experience, he sheweth, 10 the cunning of an whore, 22 and the desperate simplicity of a young wanton: 24 he dissuadeth from such wickedness.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And behold among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner, and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, † in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart.

11 († She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and † with an impudent face said unto him,

14 † I have peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows:

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face; and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon, 18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey;

20 He hath taken a bag of money † with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth:

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths;

26 For she hath cast down many wounded; yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The fame, 6 the evidence, 10 the excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom.

DOth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths;

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors;

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear, for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is † an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing † froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 ¶ Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 ¶ I wisdom dwell with || prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; ^d I have strength.

15 ^e By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me; and ^f those that seek me early shall find me.

18 ^g Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 ^h My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I || lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 ¶ ⁱ The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 ^k I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 ^l Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth;

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the || fields, nor || the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens I was there; when he set || a compass upon the face of the depth;

28 When he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep;

29 ^m When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment; when ⁿ he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 ^o Then I was by him, as one brought up with him; ^p and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for ^q blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 ^r Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whose findeth me findeth life, and shall [†] obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

C H A P. IX.

1 The discipline and doctrine of wisdom. 13 The sinful enticements of folly: 18 their ruinous tendency.

Wisdom hath builded her house: she hath hewn out her seven pillars;

2 ^a She hath killed [†] her beasts; ^b she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table;

3 She hath sent forth her maidens; ^c she crieth ^d upon the highest places of the city,

4 ^e Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither; as for him that wanteth understanding, the saith to him,

5 ^f Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 ^g Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: ^h rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 ⁱ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the Holy is understanding:

11 ^k For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 ^l If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ¶ ^m A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat ⁿ in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 ^o Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither; and as for him that wanteth understanding, the saith to him, 17 ^p Stolen waters are sweet, and bread [†] eaten in secret is pleasant.

C H A P. X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth are ſundry obſervations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THe Proverbs of Solomon. ^a A wiſe ſon maketh a glad father :
but a fooliſh ſon is the heavineſs of his mother.

2 ^a Treasures of wickedneſs profit nothing: ^b but righteouſneſs delivereth from death.

3 ^d The LORD will not ſuffer the ſoul of the righteous to famiſh: but he caſteth away || the ſubſtance of the wicked.

4 ^e He becometh poor that dealeth with a ſlack hand: but ^f the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in ſummer is a wiſe ſon: but he that ſleepeth in harveſt is ^g a ſon that cauſeth ſhame.

6 Bleſſings are upon the head of the juſt: but ^h violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 ⁱ The memory of the juſt is bleſed: but the name of the wicked ſhall rot.

8 The wiſe in heart will receive commandments: ^k but [†] a prating fool || ſhall fall.

9 ^l He that walketh uprightly walketh ſurely: but he that perverteth his ways ſhall be known.

10 ^m He that winketh with the eye cauſeth ſorrow: ⁿ but a prating
fool || ſhall fall.

11 ^o The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but ^p violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred ſtirreth up ſtrifes: but ^q love covereth all ſins.

13 In the lips of him that hath underſtanding wiſdom is found: but ^r a rod is for the back of him that is void of [†] underſtanding.

14 Wiſe men lay up knowledge:
but ^s the mouth of the fooliſh is near deſtruction.

15 ^t The rich mans wealth is his ſtrong city: the deſtruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to ſin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth inſtruction: but he that refuſeth reproof || erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a ſlander, is a fool.

19 ^u In the multitude of words there wanteth not ſin: but he that refraineth his lips is wiſe.

20 The tongue of the juſt is as choice ſilver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want [†] of wiſdom.

22 ^v The bleſſing of the LORD it maketh rich, and he addeth no for-row with it.

23 ^w It is a ſport to a fool to do miſchief: but a man of underſtanding hath wiſdom.

24 The fear of the wicked it ſhall come upon him: but the deſire of the righteous ſhall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind paſſeth, ſo is the wicked no more: but ^x the righteous is an everlaſting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as ſmoke to the eyes, ſo is the ſluggard to them that ſend him.

27 ^y The fear of the LORD [†] prolongeth days: but ^z the years of the wicked ſhall be ſhortened.

28 The hope of the righteous ſhall be gladneſs: but the [†] expectation of the wicked ſhall periſh.

29 The way of the LORD is ſtrength to the upright: but deſtruction ſhall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 [†] The righteous ſhall never be removed: but the wicked ſhall not inhabit the earth.

31 [†] The mouth of the juſt bringeth forth wiſdom: but the froward tongue ſhall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked [†] peaketh [†] frowardneſs.

C H A P. XI.

A [†] False balance is abomination to the LORD: but [†] a juſt weight is his delight.

2 [†] When pride cometh, then cometh ſhame: but with the lowly is wiſdom.

3 [†] The integrity of the upright ſhall guide them: but the perverſe-neſs of tranſgreſſors ſhall deſtroy them.

4 [†] Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteouſneſs delivereth
from death.

5 The righteouſneſs of the perfect ſhall [†] direct his way: but the wick-

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 ^r Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

C H A P. XVII.

BETTER is ^a a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of ^{||} sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over ^b a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 ^c The fining-pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 ^d Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and ^e he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 ^f Childrens children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 [†] Excellent speech becometh not a fool; much less do [†] lying lips a prince.

8 ^g A gift is as [†] a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it; whithersoever it turneth it prospereth.

9 ^h He that covereth a transgression ^{||} seeketh love: but ⁱ he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 || A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let ^k a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso ^l rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore ^m leave off contention before it be meddled with.

15 ⁿ He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, ^o seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 ^p A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 ^q A man void of [†] understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife; and ^r he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 [†] He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 ^s He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 ^t A merry heart doeth good ^{||} like a medicine: ^u but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 ^x Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 ^y A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

22^a Harken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23^b Buy the truth, and sell it not;
also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24^c The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wife child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27^d For a whore is a deep ditch, and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28^e She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29^f Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who ^g hath redness of eyes?

30^h They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek ⁱ mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder:

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things:

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down † in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and † I felt it not:
^a when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

C H A P. XXIV.

BE not thou ^a envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

2^b For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded, and by understanding it is established;

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5^c A wise man † is strong; yea, a man of knowledge † increaseth strength.

6^d For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7^e Wisdom is too high for a fool;
he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is † small.

11^f If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain:

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not: doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keep-eth thy soul, doth not he know it?
and shall not he render to every man
^g according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honey-comb, which is sweet † to thy taste:

14^h So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, ⁱ then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place:

16^k For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: ^l but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17^m Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth;

18 Lest the LORD see it, and † it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19ⁿ † Fret not thyself because of evil-men, neither be thou envious at the wicked.

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; ^o the † candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king; and meddle not with † them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. ^p It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24^q He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and † a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips † that giveth a right answer.

27^r Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

- 16 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh \parallel damage.
- 17 The legs of the lame \dagger are not equal; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 18 \parallel As he that bindeth a stone in a sling; so is he that giveth honour to a fool.
- 19 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 20 \parallel The great God, that formed all things, both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.
- 21 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool \dagger returneth to his folly.
- 22 Seekest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.
- 23 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets.
- 24 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.
- 25 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom, \parallel it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.
- 26 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.
- 27 He that passeth by and \parallel meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears:
- 28 As a mad man, who casteth \dagger firebrands, arrows, and death,
- 29 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and faith, Am not I in sport?
- 30 \dagger Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so \dagger where there is no talebearer the strife \dagger ceaseth.
- 31 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindle strife.
- 32 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the \dagger innermost parts of the belly.
- 33 Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a pottierd covered with silver dross.
- 34 He that hateth \parallel dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him:
- 35 When he \dagger speaketh fair, believe him not; for there are seven abominations in his heart.
- 36 \parallel Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.
- 27 \dagger Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.
- 28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

- 3 A stone is \dagger heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fools wrath is heavier than them both.
- 4 \dagger Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before \parallel envy?
- 5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.
- 6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend: but the kisses of an enemy are \parallel deceitful.
- 7 The full soul \dagger loatheth an honey-comb: but \dagger to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
- 8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.
- 9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the sweetness of a mans friend \dagger by hearty counsel.
- 10 Thine own friend, and thy fathers friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brothers house in the day of thy calamity: for \dagger better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.
- 11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, \dagger that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

General obſervations of impiety and religious integrity.

The ^a wicked flee when no man purſueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the tranſgreſſion of a land many are the princes thereof: but ^{||} by a man of underſtanding and knowledge the ſtate thereof ſhall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppreſſeth the poor is like a ſweeping ram, [†] which leaveth no food.

4 [†] They that forſake the law praiſe the wicked: but ſuch as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men underſtand not judgment: but ^c they that ſeek the LORD underſtand all things.

6 ^d Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverſe in his ways, though he be rich.

7 ^e Whoſo keepeth the law is a wiſe ſon: but he that ^{||} is a companion of riotous men ſhameth his father.

8 ^f He that by uſury and [†] unjuſt gain increaſeth his ſubſtance, he ſhall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 ^g He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer ſhall be abomination.

10 ^h Whoſo cauſeth the righteous to go aſtray in an evil way, he ſhall fall himſelf into his own pit: but the upright ſhall have good things in poſſeſſion.

11 The rich man is wiſe [†] in his own conceit: but the poor that hath underſtanding ſearcheth him out.

12 ⁱ When righteous men do rejoice there is great glory: but when the wicked riſe a man is ^{||} hidden.

13 ^j He that covereth his ſins ſhall not proſper: but whoſo confeſſeth and forſaketh them ſhall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man [†] that feareth alway: [†] but he that hardeneth his heart ſhall fall into miſchief.

15 As a roaring lion and a ranging bear, ſo is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth underſtanding is alſo a great oppreſſor: but he that hateth covetouſneſs ſhall prolong his days.

17 ⁿ A man that doeth violence to the blood of any perſon ſhall flee to the pit, let no man ſtay him.

18 ^o Whoſo walketh uprightly ſhall be ſaved: but [†] he that is perverſe in his ways ſhall fall at once.

19 ^p He that tilleth his land ſhall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain perſons ſhall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man ſhall abound with bleſſings: [†] but he that maketh himſelf to be rich ſhall not be ^{||} innocent.

21 ^q To have reſpect of perſons is not good; for, [†] for a piece of bread that man will tranſgreſs.

2 ^a When the righteous are || in authority the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule the people mourn.

3 ^b Whofo loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: ^c but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but † he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 ^d The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 ^e Scornful men || bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh there is no rest.

10 † The blood-thirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 ^f A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 ^g The poor and || the deceitful man meet together; the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14 ^h The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 ⁱ The rod and reproof give wisdom: but ^k a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied transgression increaseth: ^l but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 ^m Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 ⁿ Where there is no vision the people || perish: but ^o he that keepeth the law happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty || in his words? ^p there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 ^q An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 ^r A mans pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whofo is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whofo putteth his trust in the LORD † shall be safe.

26 ^s Many seek † the rulers favour: but every mans judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just; and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem.

2 ^b Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; ^c all is vanity.

3 ^d What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 ¶ One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh; ^e but the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and † hasterh to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirlieth about continually: and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 ^f All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they † return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisffied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 ¶ ^g The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ ^h I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem;

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: ⁱ this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man, ‖ to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 ^k That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and † that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten ^l more wisdom than all they that have been before

18 For ^a in much wisdom is much grief; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

C H A P. II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom.

I Said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure; and, behold, this also is vanity.

2 ^a I said of laughter, It is mad;
and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 ^b I fought in mine heart † to give myself unto wine, (yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven † all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works: I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits;

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had † servants born in my house;
also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 ^c I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men-fingers and women-fingers, and the delights of the sons of men, as † musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So ^d I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and ^e this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do:

and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 ^f And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ^g and madness, and folly:
for what can the man do that cometh after the king? || even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw † that wisdom ex-celleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 ^h The wise mans eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that ⁱ one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it † happeneth even to me; and why was:
I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten:
and how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour, which I had † taken under the sun;
because ^k I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he † leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 ^l For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are ^m sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ ⁿ There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he || should make his soul enjoy good in his labour.
This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God,

cir. 977.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, † who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them; they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

Keep † thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear ^b than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any † thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words ^c be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business, and ^d a fools voice is known by multitude of words.

4 ^e When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: ^f pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 ^g Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; ^h neither say thou before the angel that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also diverse vanities: but fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou seekest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not † at the matter: for ⁱ he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all; the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 ^k As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came so shall he go: and ^l what profit hath he ^m that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also ⁿ he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: ^o † it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun † all the days of his life, which God giveth him; ^p for it is his portion.

19 ^q Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 || For he shall not much remember the days of his life : because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use.
9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires. 10 From the past is known man's vanity, the future is unknown.

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men :

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, ^a so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger catcheth it : this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial ; I say, that ^c an untimely birth is better than he :

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing : this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good : do not all go to one place ?

7 ¶ ^d All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the [†] appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool ? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living ?

9 ¶ Better is the sight of the eyes [†] than the wandering of the desire : this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 ¶ That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man : ^e neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better ?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, [†] all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as ^f a shadow ? for ^g who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun ?

CHAP. VII.

1 Remedies against vanity are a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 The difficulty of wisdom.

A ^a Good name is better than precious ointment ; and the day of death than the day of ones birth.

2 ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting : for that is the end of all men ; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 ¶ Sorrow is better than laughter : for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning ; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 ^b It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 ^c For as the [†] crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad ; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof ; and ^e the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 ^f Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry : for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these ? for thou dost not enquire [†] wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is good with an inheritance ; and by it there is profit ^g to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a [†] defence, and money is a defence : but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God : for ^h who can make that straight which he hath made crooked ?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider : God also hath [†] set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity : ⁱ there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

16 ^k Be not righteous overmuch : neither make thyself overwise : why shouldest thou [†] destroy thyself ?

17 Be not overmuch wicked, neither be thou foolish : ^m why shouldest thou die [†] before thy time ?

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this ; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand : for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

25 †^q I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26^r And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: † who so pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the Preacher,) ¶ counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: † one man among a thousand have I found, but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, † that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

u Gen. 1. 27.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected, 6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? † a mans wisdom maketh his face to shine, and † the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the kings commandment, † and that in regard of the oath of God.

3^c Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Who so keepeth the commandment † shall feel no evil thing; and a wise mans heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because † to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7^e For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him ¶ when it shall be?

8^f There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit: neither hath he power in the day of death; and there is no ¶ discharge in that war: neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried; who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

11^h Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ⁱ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that he shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth, that there be just men, unto whom it † happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous. I said, that this also is vanity.

15^m Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry; for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that † a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea, further, though a wise man think to know it, † yet shall he not be able to find it.

THE ^a vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 ^b Hear, O heavens; and give ear, O earth; for the LORD hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me!

3 ^c The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his masters crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people [†] laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the holy One of Israel unto anger, they are [†] gone away backward.

5 ¶ ^d Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will [†] revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head ^{there is} no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ^{||} ointment.

7 ^e Your country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and ^{it is} desolate, [†] as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left ^{as} a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 ^f Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as ^h Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers ⁱ of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah:

11 To what purpose ^{is} the multitude of your ^k sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts: and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of [†] he-goats.

12 When ye come [†] to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new-moons and sabbaths, ^m the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; ^{it is} iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new-moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth; they are a trouble unto me; ⁿ I am weary to bear them.

15 And ^o when ye spread forth your hands I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye [†] make many prayers I will not hear: your hands are full of [†] blood.

16 ¶ Wash ye, make you clean: pur away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ^p cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment; ^{||} relieve the oppressed; judge the fatherless; plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and ^q let us reason together, saith the LORD: Though your sins be as scarlet, ^r they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORDS house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures: their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself; therefore forgive them not.

10 ¶ Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, 14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up.

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

C H A P. III.

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 10 The different reward of the righteous and the wicked. 12 The oppression of the rulers. 16 The judgments on the women for their pride.

FOR, behold, the LORD, the LORD of hosts, ^a doth take away from Jerusalem, and from Judah, ^b the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 ^c The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, and [†] the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the ^{||} eloquent orator.

4 And I will give ^d children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he [†] swear, saying, I will not be an [†] healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their in as ^e Sodom, they hide it not: woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 ¶ Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; [†] for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be [†] given him.

12 ¶ As for my people, ² children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, ^h ^{||} they which lead thee cause thee to err, and [†] destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have ^{||} eaten up the vineyard; [†] the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord God of hosts.

16 ¶ Moreover, the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks and [†] wanton eyes, walking, and ^{||} mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will [†] discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their ^{||} cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The ^{||} chains, and the bracelets, and the ^{||} mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the head-bands, and the [†] tablets, and the ear-rings,

21 The rings, and nose-jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping-pins, 23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle, a rent; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy [†] mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; [†] and she, being ^{||} [†] desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

In the extremity of evils Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

And ^a in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only † let us be called by thy name, || to take away ^b our reproach.

2 In that day shall ^c the branch of the LORD be † beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely † for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written || among the living in Jerusalem;

4 When ^d the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling-place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a ^e cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for || upon all the glory shall be † a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

CHAP. V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God excuseth his severe judgments: 8 his judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 18 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice. 26 The executioners of Gods judgments.

Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in † a very fruitful hill:

2 And he || fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also † made a wine-press therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^b judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: ^c I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be † trodden down.

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah † his pleasant plant; and he looked for judgment, but beheld † oppression; for righteousness, but beheld a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ^d house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that † they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 ^e ¶ In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, † Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ^f bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ ^g Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine || inflame them!

12 And ^h the harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts; but ⁱ they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ^k Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge; and † their honourable men ^l are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And ^m the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and || † God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

C H A P. VII.

1 Ahaz is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Christ promised. 17 Ahaz his judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

And it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria † is confederate with Ephraim: and his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, ^b and ‖ Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the ^c conduit of the upper pool, in the ‖ highway of the fullers field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, † neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and ‖ vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal;

7 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 ^d For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, † that it be not a people:

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliahs son. ^e ‖ If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 † † Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ‖ ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign, ^f Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear ^g a son, and ‖ shall call his name ^h Immanuel, 15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 ⁱ For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of ^k both her kings.

17 † The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy fathers house, days that have not come, from the day that ^l Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD ^m shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria:

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate vailies, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all ‖ bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a ⁿ razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep:

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, that he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left † in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lessir cattle.

The everlasting Father, ⁱ The Prince of peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ^k there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The ^l zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim, and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and [†] join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel [†] with open mouth. ^m For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ¶ For ⁿ the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts:

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lyes, he is the tail.

16 For ^o the leaders of this people cause them to err; and [†] they that are led of them are [†] destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh [†] folly. ^p For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 ¶ For wickedness burneth as the fire; it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is ^q the land darkened, and the people shall be as the [†] fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall [†] snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: ^r they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. ^s For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

C H A P. X.

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of Gods vengeance, for his pride, shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall return. 24 Judah comforted.

Woe unto them that ^t decree unrighteous decrees, and [†] that write grievousness which they have prescribed,

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And ^u what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. ^v For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 ¶ O [†] Assyrian, ^w the rod of mine anger, [†] and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and [†] to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 ^x Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 ^y For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not ^z Calno ^h as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria ⁱ as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the LORD hath performed his whole work ^j upon mount Zion, and on Jerusalem, I will [†] punish the fruit [†] of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms :

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house:

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evil-doers shall never be renewed.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children, for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name and remnant, and son and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 ^o I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ¶ The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand;

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall ^p his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath ^q purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that ^r king Ahaz died was this burden.

29 ¶ Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpents root shall come forth a cockatrice, ^s and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That ^t the LORD hath founded Zion, and ^u the poor of his people shall trust in it.

The lamentable state of Moab, &c.

THe burden of Moab. Because in the night ^v Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 ^w He is gone up to Bajith and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: ^x on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: ^y on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, and weep abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh; their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 ^z My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up: for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters ^a of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away; the grafs faileth; there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab, the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring ^b more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, ^a a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound [†] by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, ^b Look away from me; [†] I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me; because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 ^c For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 ^d And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir [†] uncovered the shield.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his fathers house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

C H A P. XXIII.

The miserable overthrow of Tyre.

THe burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river is her revenue, and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea; saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes; whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea; he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

C H A P. XXIV.

Gods judgments upon the land.

BEhold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away; the world languisheth and fadeth away; the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled upon the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry hearted do sigh.

C H A P. XXV.

The prophet praiseth God for his judgments, and salvation of his people.

O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made ^a of a city an heap; of a defended city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall ^b the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will † destroy in this mountain the face of the covering, † cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will ^c swallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will ^d wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; ^e we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be ¶ trodden down under him, even as straw is ¶ trodden down for the dunghill.

W Oe to † the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose † glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are † overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, † which, as a tempest of hail, and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden † under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty

5 ¶ In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also † have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: † the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem:

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: † for we have made lyes our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

9 Desolation is foretold. 15 Restoration is promised to succeed.

Behold, ^a a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment;

2 And a man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a ⁺ great rock in a weary land.

3 And ^b the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the ⁺ rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak || plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even || when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he || stand.

9 || Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 ⁺ Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip ye, and make ye bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for ⁺ the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 ^e Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; || yea, upon all the houses of joy in ^d the joyous city.

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the || forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 || Until ^e the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and ^f the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places.

19 ^g When it shall hail, coming down ^h on the forest; || and the city shall be low in a low place.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar; as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 The LORD is exalted: for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of thy salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without; the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down; Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

11 Ye shall conceive chaff; ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime; as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

13 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites: who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

15 He that walketh uprightly, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

17 Thine eyes shall see the King in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.

18 Thine heart shall meditate terror. Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers?

19 Thou shalt not see a fierce people: a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a numbing tongue, which thou canst not understand.

20 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken:

21 But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams, wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.

22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

23 Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast; they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey.

24 And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

The judgments wherewith God revengeth his church: the desolation of her enemies.

Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein: the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll; and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree.

5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood: it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped:

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass, with reeds and rushes.

8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there.

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army: and he stood by the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fullers field.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah, hath notice of his treasures. 3 Isaiah foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT ^a that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his || precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his || armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts;

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and || they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken: he said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAP. XL.

1 The promulgation of the gospel. 3 The preaching of John Baptist. 9 The preaching of the apostles.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye [†] comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her || warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: ^a for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

3 ¶ ^b The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, ^c Prepare ye the way of the LORD, ^d make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; ^e and the crooked shall be made || straight, and the rough places || plain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? ^f All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because the Spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the ^g word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ || O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; || O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come || with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, ^h his reward is with him, and || his work before him.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those || that are with young.

12 ¶ ^k Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in [†] a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 ^l Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or, being [†] his counsellor, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who [†] instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of [†] understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 "The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that † is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman † to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 ¶ It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that † stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in;

23 That bringeth the † princes to nothing: he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 † To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: † he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? † there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fail:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD † shall † renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint.

C H A P. XLI.

1 God exposulateth with his people about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near, then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up † the righteous man † from the east, called him to his foot, † gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed † safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD the † first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 † They helped every one his neighbour; and everyone said to his brother, † Be of good courage.

7 † So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smothereth with the hammer † him that smote the anvil, † saying, It is ready for the fodering; and he fastened it with nails, † that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have † chosen, the seed of Abraham my † friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not: for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be † ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and † they that strive with thee shall perish.

18 I will open ⁿ rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the vallies: I will make the ^e wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

13 ¶ The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry; yea, roar: he shall ¶ prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and † devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

18 ¶ Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 ¶ Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORDS servant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness sake; he will magnify the law, and make ¶ it honourable.

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

with the strength of his arms; yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he sitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he || strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm; I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire; yea also, I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to it the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, then shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains; O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD thy Redeemer, and * he that formed thee from the womb; I am the LORD that maketh all things; ² that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself:

25 That ² frustrateth the tokens ² of the liars, and maketh diviners mad: that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish:

26 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers: that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the [†] decayed places thereof:

27 That saith to the deep, Be dry; and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure; even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAP. XLV.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his churches sake: 5 he challengeth obedience: 20 he sheweth the vanity of idols.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I || have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, ² and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, ^b that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which ^c call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servants sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

5 I ^d am the LORD, and ^e there is none else; there is no god besides me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

6 That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and ^f create evil. I the LORD do all these things.

8 ⁸ Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

9 ⁹ Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. ¹ Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Woe unto him that faith unto his father, What begetteth thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons; and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.

12 ¹² I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will ¹³ direct all his ways: he shall ¹⁴ build my city, and he shall let go my captives, ¹⁵ not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, ¹⁶ The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia; and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; ¹⁷ in chains they shall come over; and they shall fall down unto thee; they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, ¹⁸ Surely God is in thee, and ¹⁹ there is none else; there is no god.

15 Verily thou art a God ¹⁶ that livest thyself, O God of Israel the Saviour.

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are ¹⁷ makers of idols.

17 ¹⁸ But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD ¹⁹ that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; ²⁰ I am the LORD, and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in ²⁰ secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in 20 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are ²¹ makers of idols.

21 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

22 For thus saith the LORD ²³ that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; ²⁴ I am the LORD, and there is none else.

I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 ²¹ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: ²² they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: ²³ who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not ²⁴ the LORD? ²⁵ and there is no god else besides me; a just God, and a Saviour; there is none besides me.

22 ²³ Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else.

23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every ²⁴ knee shall bow, ²⁵ every tongue shall swear.

24 ²⁵ Surely, shall one say, In the LORD have I ²⁶ righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come: and ²⁷ all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

2 They stoop; they bow down together: they could not deliver the burden, but ³ themselves are gone into captivity.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 Gods judgments upon Babylon and Chuldea, 6 for their unmercifulness, 7 pride, 10 and over-boldness, 12 shall be irresistible.

Come ^a down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: ^b there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 ^b Take the millstones and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 ^c Thy nakedness shall be uncovered: yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: ^d for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 [¶] ^e I was wroth with my people; ^f I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; ^g upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 [¶] And thou saidst, I shall be ^a a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, ^b neither didst remember the latter end of it;

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, ^c I am, and none else besides me: I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But ¹ these two things shall come to thee in a moment, in one day; the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, ² for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 [¶] For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness; thou hast said, None seeth me: thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath [¶] perverted thee; ² and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know [†] from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to [†] put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 [¶] Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now ^a the [†] astrologers, the stargazers, [†] the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them: they shall not deliver [†] themselves from the power of the flame; there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even [†] thy merchants from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

C H A P. XLVIII.

Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, ^a which are called by the name of Israel, and ^b are come forth out of the waters of Judah; ^c which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, ^d but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

4 Because I knew that thou art [†] obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image and my molten image hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not: lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called ^g a transgressor from the womb.

18 ^t Oh that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ^u ¶ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath ^v redeemed his servant Jacob.

60. 4.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, I shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 * The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me : give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 ¹ Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their † arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 " And kings shall be thy † nursing-fathers, and their † queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and * liek up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for ⁷ they shall not be affamed that wait for me.

24 ¶ ^z Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or † the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the † captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will ^a feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own ^b blood as with || sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is ^a the bill of your mothers divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my ^b creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have you sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, ^d at my rebuke I ^e dry up the sea; I make the ^f rivers a wilderness: ^g their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

^h I clothe the heavens with blackness, ⁱ and I make sackcloth their covering.

⁴ ¶ ^k The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary; he wakeneth morning by morning; he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

⁵ ¶ The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not ^m rebellious, neither turned away back.

⁶ ¶ I gave my back to the smiters, and ⁿ my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

⁷ ¶ For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have ^p I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

⁸ ¶ He is near that justifieth me, who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is ^q mine adversary? let him come near to me.

⁹ Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? ^r lo, they all shall wax old as a garment: ^s the moth shall eat them up.

¹¹ Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled: ^u this shall ye have of mine hand, ye shall lie down in sorrow.

C H A P. LI.

¹ An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ. ⁹ Christ defendeth his people from fear.

¹ ¶ Harken to me, ^a ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

² ¶ Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

³ For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert ^c like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

⁴ ¶ Harken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

⁵ My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people: the eyes shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

⁶ Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for ^d the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, ^e and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

⁸ For ^h the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

¹² ¶ I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid ^p of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made ^q as grass;

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into ^e Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now, therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is ^f blasphemed.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ⁱ all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the enlargement of the church, 4 their safety, 6 their certain deliverance out of affliction, 11 their fair edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

2 Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for thou more art the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

3 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes:

4 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

5 Fear not, for thou shalt not be ashamed; neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

6 For thy Maker is thine husband; The LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the holy One of Israel: The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

7 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

8 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

9 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD, thy Redeemer.

10 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

11 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD, that hath mercy on thee.

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and he hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people he was stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out himself unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not; and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the holy One of Israel: for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 ¶ Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign, that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification: 3 he promisetli it shall be general. 9 The calamities of the church imputed to blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people; neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

11 Yea, they are [†]greedy dogs which [†] can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter.

1 The blessed death of the righteous.
3 The Jews reproved for their whorish idolatry. 13 Evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and [†]a merciful men are taken away, [†]none considering that the righteous is taken away ^{||} from the evil to come.

2 He shall ^{||} enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking ^{||} in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ye sons of the forcerers, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood;

5 Enflaming yourselves ^{||} with idols ^cunder every green tree, ^dslaying the children in the vallies under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 ^e Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed; even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance; for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and ^{||} made thee a covenant with them; [†] thou lovedst their bed ^{||} where thou sawest it.

9 And ^{||} ^gthou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the ^{||} life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And ^h of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? ⁱ have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them; but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, ^kCast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, ^lwhose name is Holy; ^m I dwell in the high and holy place; ⁿ with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, ^oto revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 ^p For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls ^qwhich I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and snote him: ^r I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on [†] frowardly in the way of his heart.

1 Hypocrisy reproved. 8 The blessings promised to godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRy aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ^{Wherefore have we fasted,} say they, and thou seest not? ^{wherefore have we} afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your ^{labours.}

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ^{ye shall not fast as ye do this day,} to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ^{such a fast that I have chosen?} ^{a day for a man to afflict his soul?} ^{is it to bow down his head as a bulrush,} and ^{to spread sackcloth and ashes under him?} wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo ^{the heavy burdens,} and ^{to let the oppressed go free,} and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not ^{to deal thy bread to the hungry,} and that thou bring the poor that are ^{cast out to thy house?} when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him: and that thou hide not thyself from ^{thine own flesh?}

8 ^{Then shall thy light break forth as the morning,} and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee: ^{the glory of the LORD} shall be thy re-reward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, and the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in ^{drought,} and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters ^{shall fail not.}

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The Repairer of the breach, The Restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ^{If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath,} from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a Delight, the Holy of the LORD, Honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking ^{thine own words:}

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lyes; ^{they conceive mischief,} and bring forth iniquity:

1 The office of Christ. 4 The restoration, 7 and blessings of the church.

THE ^a Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me ^b to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim ^c liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; ^d to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ^e to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of righteousness, ^f The planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

4 ¶ And they shall ^g build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen, and your vine-dressers.

6 ^h But ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ⁱ ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ¶ ^k For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double; everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the Lord love judgment, ^l I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the Lord hath blessed.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for ^m he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, ⁿ as a bridegroom ^o decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates ^a shall be open continually, they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the ^b forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 ^c For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish: yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 ^d The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make ^e the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that assisted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall ^f bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the Lord, The Zion of the holy One of Israel.

15 ¶ Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, ^g and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that ^h I the Lord am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call ⁱ thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 ^j The sun shall be no more thy light by day: neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and ^k thy God thy glory.

20 ^l Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 ^m Thy people also shall be all righteous; ⁿ they shall inherit the land for ever, ^o the branch of my planting, ^p the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the Lord will hasten it in his time.

1 The prophets fervent desire to confirm the church in Gods promises. 6 The ministers stirred up to importunity.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory : ^a and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be ^b a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

5 For as a young man marieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee : and ^e as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so ^f shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 ^g ¶ I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night : ^h ye that make mention of the LORD keep not silence ;

7 And give him no ⁱ rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

8 ¶ The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ^j Surely I will no more ^k give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies ; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured :

Christ sheweth his power to save, and his victory over his enemies, &c.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with died garments from Bozrah ? this ^q that is ^r glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength ? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore ^s art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat ?

3 I have ^t trodden the wine-press alone ; and of the people ^u there was none with me : for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury ; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the ^v day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 ^w And I looked, and ^x there was none to help ; and I wondered that ^y there was none to uphold : therefore mine own ^z arm brought salvation unto me ; and my fury it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ^{aa} make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they ^{ab} are my people, children ^{ac} that will not lye : so he was their Saviour.

9 ¶ ^{ad} In all their affliction he was afflicted, ^{ae} and the angel of his presence saved them : ^{af} in his love and in his pity he redeemed them ; and ^{ag} he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they ^{ah} rebelled, and ^{ai} vexed his holy Spirit : ^{aj} therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that ^{ak} brought them up out of the sea with the ^{al} shepherd of his flock ? ^{am} where is he that put his holy Spirit within him ?

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the ^k law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, ^l and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and ^m with your childrens children will I plead.

11 ^a Hath a nation changed their gods, which are ^b yet no gods? ^c but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 ^a Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters; and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ^a Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he ^b spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and ^b yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes ^a have broken the crown of thy head.

17 ^a Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 ^a And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own ^a wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not ^a transgress; when ^b upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had ^a planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed; how then art thou turned into ^b the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou ^a wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet ^b thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: ^a thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 ^a A wild ass ^b used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at ^c her pleasure; in her occasion who can ^d turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but ^a thou saidst, ^b There is no hope; No; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed: they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets;

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned ^a their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But ^a where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they ^b can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for ^c according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I ^a smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath ^b devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 ^a O generation, see ye the word of the LORD: ^b Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, ^c We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by ^a secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 ^a Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? ^b thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, ^c as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and ^a thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? But thou hast played the harlot with many lovers: ^b yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with: ^c in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the ^d showers have been withheld, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a ^e whores forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art ^f the guide of my youth?

5 ^g Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst.

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me, in the days of Josiah the king, ^h Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is ⁱ gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me: but she returned not. And her treacherous ^k sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw when, for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce, yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass, through the ^l lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me ^m with her whole heart, but ⁿ feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, ^o The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ¶ Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am ^p merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever:

13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree: and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; ^q for I am married unto you: and I will take you, one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ^r pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD; neither shall it ^s come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall ^t that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem, The throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it ^u to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they ^v walk any more after the ^w imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days ^x the house of Judah shall walk ^y with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have ^z given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee ^a a ^b pleasant land, ^c a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away ^d from me.

20 ¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her ^e husband, so ^f have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and ^g they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 ^h * Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 ⁱ * Truly in vain is ^j salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: ^k * truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

1 God excitemeth Israel to repentance by promises, 3 and Judah by threats of invasion and war, &c.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, ^a return unto me; and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 ^b And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, ^c in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; ^d and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they ^e glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ^f Break up your fallow ground, and ^g sow not among thorns.

4 ^h Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and let us go into the defended cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion; ¶ retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the ^k north, and a great ^l destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place ^m to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this ⁿ gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! ^o surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, ^p saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, ^q A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse;

12 Even ¶ a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I ^r give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and ^s his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: ^t his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, ^u wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth ^v from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As keepers of a field are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 ^w Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ¶ My ^x bowels, my bowels! I am pained at ^y my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 ^z Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: ^a they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 ^b I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 ^c I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; ^d yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this shall the earth mourn; and ^e the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, ^f though thou rendest thy [†] face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

The judgments of God upon the Jews for their manifold corruptions, &c.

RUn ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^a if ye can find a man, ^b if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth, and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, ^c The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^d stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but ^e they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for ^f they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^g they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether ^h broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ⁱ a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and ^k a wolf of the [†] evening shall spoil them, ^l a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings [†] are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me; and ^m sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots houses.

8 ⁿ They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbours wife.

10 ¶ ^p Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; ^q but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORDS.

12 ^s They have belyed the LORD, and said, ^t It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ^u behold, I will make my words ^v thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring ^w a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine ^x harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees; they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless, in those days, saith the LORD, I ^y will not make a full end with you.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and ¶ cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited: she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 ^b As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: ^c violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest ^d my soul ¶ depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ^e ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And ^f their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD. Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth; behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array, as men for war, against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire, the founder melteth in vain; for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 ¶ Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

C H A P. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance: 8 he rejecteth their vain confidence. 20 A call to mourning.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORDS house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt;

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which which I gave to you, and to your fathers, as I have done to ¹Shiloh.

15 And I will call you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren,
^m even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ⁿ pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ^o For I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ^p The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead ^q their dough, to make cakes to the ¶ queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger?
saith the LORD; do they not ^rprovoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ^s Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ^t For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [†] concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, ^u Obey my voice, and ^v I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 ^w But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels ^x and in the ¶ imagination of their evil heart, and [†] * went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even ^y sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ^z daily rising up early and sending them:

26 ^a Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ^b hardened their neck; they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee,

28 But thou shalt say unto them,
This ^c is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth ¶ correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ ^c Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ^d they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ^e high places of Tophet, which ^f is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded ^g them not, neither [†] came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, ^h the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet till there be no place.

33 And the ⁱ carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth;
and none shall fray ^j them away.

34 Then will I cause to ^k cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; for the land shall be desolate.

16 ^r The Portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and ^s Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

17 [†] Gather up thy wares out of the land, O [†] inhabitant of the fortresses:

18 For thus saith the LORD, Be- hold, I will ^t sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will dis- stress them, that they may find it ^u.

19 ^v Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, ^x Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not; there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become bru- tish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the ^y north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a ^z den of dragons.

23 [†] O LORD, I know that the ^a way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, ^b correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou ^c bring me to nothing.

25 ^d Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAP. XI.

1 ^e Jeremiah proclaimeth Gods covenant, and rebuketh the disobedient Jews: 11 he prophesieth evils to come upon them.

^f The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this cove- nant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^g Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, ^h from the iron furnace, saying, ⁱ Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my ^j people, and I will be your God;

5 That I may perform the ^k oath which I have sworn unto your fa- thers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, ^l So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jeru- salem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

2. 24.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, ^e rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 ^f Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but ^g walked every one in the ^h imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ^a A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to [†] escape; and ⁱ though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, go and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their [†] trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy ¹ cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to [†] that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore ^m pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their [†] trouble.

15 ⁿ ¶ What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing the hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? [†] when thou doest evil, then thou rejoycest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive-tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, ^o that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewdest me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb, or an ox, that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that ^p they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy [†] the tree with the fruit thereof, ^q and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that ^r triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth ^s that seek thy life, saying, 'Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will [†] punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

23 And there shall be no remnant of them; for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

2 ^a Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee; yet ^b let me talk to thee of thy judgments: ^c Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: [†] they grow yea, they bring forth fruit: ^c thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, ^d knowest me; thou hast seen me, and ^e tried mine heart [†] toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, ^f for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? ^g the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

thee, then how wilt thou do in ^b the 6 For even ⁱ thy brethren, and the dealt treacherously with thee; yea, derness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me;

cause no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all vour from the one end of the land no flesh shall have peace.

13 ¶ ^m They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns; they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit;
and || they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold,
I will ⁿ pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (as they taught my people to swear by Baal;) then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not ^o obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 By the type of a linen girdle, the destruction of the people is prefigured: 12 by the bottles filled with wine, their drunkenness in misery foretold.

Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and dugged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD
came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the || imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine; and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon Davids throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^a with drunkenness.

19 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem:

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, neither do ye any work; but hallow ye the sabbath-day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots, and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meat-offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath-day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath-day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Under the type of a potter, God sheweth his absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potters house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potters house; and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potters hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it:

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build, and to plant it:

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now, therefore, go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope; but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

5 And I myself will fight against you with an ^a outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die of a great pestilence.

b Ch. 19. 5. & 22. 9. b I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

c Ch. 38. 2. 9 He that ^c abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

d Ch. 30. 18. & 45. 5. 10 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

CHAP. XXII.

1 An exhortation to repentance with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

Thus saith the LORD, Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates;

3 Thus saith the LORD, ^a Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, ^b then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting [†] upon the throne of David, riding in chariots, and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the kings house of Judah, Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons; and they shall cut down ^c thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ^d Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD, ^e touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, ^f which went forth out of this place, He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ ^g Woe unto ^h him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbours service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

15 Shalt thou reign because thou clovest thyself in cedar? Did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for || violence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 ¶ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages; for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear: ^k this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence:

25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD;

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

1 A restoration of the scattered flock prophesied: 5 Christ shall rule and save them. 9 Against false prophets.

W Oe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them, which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 ¶ In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ^k the land is full of adulterers; for because of ^{||} swearing the land mourneth, ^l the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up; and their ^{||} course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ^m both prophet and priest are profane; yea, ⁿ in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 ^o Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen ^{||} [†] folly in the prophets of Samaria; [†] they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^{||} an horrible thing: ^q they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^r Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with ^s wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ^{||} profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophecy unto you; they make you vain: ^t they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^u Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the ^{||} imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^x who hath stood in the ^{||} counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^y whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The ^z anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed, the thoughts of his heart: ^a in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 ^b I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any ^c hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD: ^d do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophecy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophecy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, ^e as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet that [†] hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: what ^f is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire, saith the LORD, and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, [†] I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, ^{||} that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophecy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by ^g their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 [†] And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even [†] punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered?

swered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more; for every mans word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts, our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD:

39 Therefore, behold I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring ^h an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 By good and bad figs, ⁴ he foretold their restoration from captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the residue of Jerusalem.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar ^a king of Babylon had carried away captive ^b Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten [†] they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seeest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs: the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge [†] them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land, and ^c I will build them, and not pull them down: and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them ^d an heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they ^e shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil ^f figs, which cannot be eaten they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem that remain in this land, and ^g them that dwell in the land of Egypt;

9 And I will deliver them [†] to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, ⁱ to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt ^h and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take ^fall the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon ^gmy servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and ^hmake them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Jeremiah exhorting to repentance, 8 is apprehended, 10 and arraigned: 12 his apology: 16 he is acquitted in judgment.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the court of the LORDS house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORDS house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; ^a diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^b repent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^c whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like ^d Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the kings house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down ¶ in the entry of the new gate of the LORDS house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying, † This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ^e amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will ^f repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me † as seemeth good and meet unto you:

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests, and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 ^g Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ^h Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king fought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achibor, and certain men with him, into Egypt:

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the [†] common people.

24 Nevertheless, [†] the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAP. XXVII.

Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah ^a king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus ^{||} saith the LORD to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, ^b and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyris, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them ^{||} to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 ^c I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my outstretched arm, and ^d have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon ^e my servant; and ^f the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 ^g And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his sons son, ^h until the very time of his land come; ⁱ and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your [†] dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy a lye unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ^{||} I spake also to ^h Zedekiah king of Judah, according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will ye die, thou artid thy people, by the sword, by the famine; and by the pestilence; as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy [†] a lye unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy [†] a lye in my name, that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and I will

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD, We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether † a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, * as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 ^b Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it; it is even the time of Jacobs trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity. The LORD blest thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them

^o to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 ^a In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the ^b days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt: (which my covenant they brake, ^c although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:)

33 ^d But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, ^e I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ^f and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: ^g for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for ^h I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ⁱ which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ^j the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name.

36 ^k If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If ^l heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, ^m the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, ⁿ from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

2 2 Kings
25: 1, 2.

THe word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD ^a in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylons army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ^b in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judahs house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, ^c Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely ^d be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper?

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel, the son of Shallum thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth; for the ^e right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncles son came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD,
and said unto me, Buy my field,
I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin:
for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncles son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even ^f seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I ^g subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the fight of Hanameel mine uncles son, and in the presence of the ^h witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, (both which is sealed,) and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days:

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards, shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and ⁱ there is nothing ^j too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest ^k loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: The great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name;

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, 16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our Righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD, David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel:

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shalum, the keeper of the † door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine and cups; and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^bJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^cthat ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Go, and tell the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their fathers commandment: ^dnotwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^erising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^fReturn ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers; but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me;

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

1 Baruch writeth Jeremiah's prophecy.
20 Jehoiakim burneth the roll: 27 his judgment. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy, with additions.

And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a ^a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of ^c Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them: that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah ^d called Baruch the son of Neriah; and ^e Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD, in the ears of the people, in the LORDS house ^f upon the fasting-day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 It may be [†] they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great ^{is} the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORDS house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the ^h entry of the new gate of the LORDS house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the kings house, into the scribes chamber; and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words they were afraid, both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Elishama the scribes chamber: and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in ^b the winter-house in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him: and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the || cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, Thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets, which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king; † let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

C H A P. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah is put into the dungeon:

7 Ebed-melech getteth him some enlargement: 14 his counsel to the king.

24 The conference concealed.

Then Shephatiah the son of Matthan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live: for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD. This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylons army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death; for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the † welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son || of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the kings house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the kings house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and † he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men † with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the || third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing: hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If thou wilt assuredly go forth ^b unto the king of Babylons princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylons princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee: obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee; so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women, that are left in the king of Judahs house, shall be brought forth to the king of Babylons princes, and those women shall say, † Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and † thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return ^k to Jonathans house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So † they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

1 Ishmael treacherously killeth Gedaliah, and others. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, ^a that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and ^b smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass, the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, † weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 Johanan carrieth Jeremiah into Egypt, 8 who prophecieth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, Ch. 42. 1.

2 ^a Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely; the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there.

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah:

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to ^d Tahpanhes.

1 The desolation of Judah for idolatry.

15 The Jews obstinacy. 29 The destruction of Egypt foretold.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, ^a and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying, a Ch. 43. 7.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein;

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed, to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit, ^b I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore ^c my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, ^d out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the ^e wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not ^f humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, ^g I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and ^h they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword, and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword, and by the famine; and ⁱ they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 ^j For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they ^k have a desire to return to dwell there: for ^l none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee:

17 But we will certainly do ^m whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the ⁿ queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of ^o victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 ^p And when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her, without our ^q men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt;

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, ^r Ye and your wives

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest bath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill; though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation; every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her; and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that he hath taken against Edom, and his purposes that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman; Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry and noise thereof was heard in the east.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings; they are faint-hearted: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD, Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get ye up unto the wealthy nation that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

1, 9, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon.

4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

THe word that the LORD spake ^a against Babylon, and against the land of the Chaldeans, [†] by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and [†] set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^b Bel is confounded, Mero-dach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ^c For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, ^a going and weeping; they shall go and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in ^e a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their [†] resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them; and ^f their adversaries said, ^g We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, ^h the habitation of justice: even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 ⁱ Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ ^k For, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty ^{||} expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ^l all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage; because ye are grown [†] fat ^m as the heifer at grass, and ^{||} below as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ⁿ but it shall be wholly desolate; ^o every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^p Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about; she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for ^q it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ^r as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the fower from Babylon, and him that handleth the ^{||} sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^s they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is as scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Boshan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land || of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of || Pekod : waste and utterly destroy after them, faith the LORD, and do ^c according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is ^a the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken ! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations !

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ^a and thou wast not aware ; thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation : for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her † from the utmost border, open her storehouses ; † cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly : let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks ; let them go down to the slaughter : woe unto them ! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ^y to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon : all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about ; let none thereof escape : ^z recompense her according to her work ; according to all that she hath done, do unto her : for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the holy One of Israel.

30 ^a Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, faith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou † most proud, faith the Lord God of hosts : for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And † the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up : and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus faith the LORD of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together ; and all that took them captives held them fast ; they refused to let them go.

34 ^b Their Redeemer is strong ; The LORD of hosts is his name : he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chaldeans, faith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wife men :

36 A sword is ^c upon the || † lyars ; and they shall dote : a sword is upon her mighty men ; and they shall be disinayed :

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ^d the mingled people that are in the midst of her ; and ^e they shall become as women : a sword is upon her treasures ; and they shall be robbed :

38 ^f A drought is upon her waters ; and they shall be dried up : for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 ^g Therefore the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein : ^h and it shall be no more inhabited for ever ; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ⁱ As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, faith the LORD ; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ^k Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance ; they are cruel, and will not shew mercy : ^l their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble ; ^m anguish took hold of him, and pangs, as of a woman in travail.

43 ^x Her cities are a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 ^y And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 ^z My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And || left your heart faint, and ye fear ^a for the rumour that shall be heard in the land, a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year ^b shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that ^b I will ^c do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then ^c the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: ^d for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 || As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all || the earth.

50 Ye that have escaped the sword go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

eObad. 4. 53 ^f Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters a noise of their voice is uttered.

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken; every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

eVer. 39. 57 ^g And I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her captains and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, || The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly || broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire; and ^h the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went || with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a || quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words, 62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be [†] desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, ⁱ that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates.

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out

Zedekiah was ^a one and twenty years old when he [†] began to reign: and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, in the ^b ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the kings garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about;) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 ^c Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 ^d And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he [†] put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound bound him in || chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in † prison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now, in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, († which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,) † came Nebuzar-adan || † captain of the guard, which † served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And burnt the house of the LORD, and the kings house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burnt he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vine-dressers, and for husbandmen.

17 Also the † pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons also, and the || shovels, and the snuffers, and the || bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the || fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD:

† the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the † pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a † fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thicknes thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass: the second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and † all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And † the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, † and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the † door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that † were near the kings person, which were found in the city; and the || principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and therefore men of the people of the land that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: In the † seventh year, † three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two † persons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, † lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,

32 And spake † kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 33 And changed his prison-garments; † and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, † every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

¶ The LAMENTATIONS of JEREMIAH.

C H A P. I.

1 Jerusalem's misery for her sin: 12 her complaint, 18 and confession of Gods righteous judgment.

HOW doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! ^a how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princeſs among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She ^b weepeth ſore in the ^c night, and her tears are on her cheeks; ^d among all her lovers ^e ſhe hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherouſly with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity becauſe of affliction, and [†] becauſe of great ſervitude; ſhe dwelleth among the heathen, ſhe findeth no reſt: all her perfecutors overtook her between the ſtraits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, becauſe none come to the ſolemn feaſts: all her gates are deſolate: her prieſts ſigh, her virgins are afflicted, and ſhe is in bitterneſs.

5 Her adverſaries ^f are the chief, her enemies proſper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her tranſgreſſions: her ^g children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princeſs are become like harts that find no paſture; and they are gone without ſtrength before the purſuer.

7 Jeruſalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miſeries, all her ^{||} pleaſant things that ſhe had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her; the adverſaries ſaw her, and did mock at her ſabbaths.

8 Jeruſalem hath grievouſly ſinned; therefore ſhe [†] is removed: all that honoured her deſpiſe her, becauſe ^h they have ſeen her nakedneſs; yea, ſhe ſigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthineſs is in her ſkirts; ⁱ ſhe remembereth not her laſt end; therefore ſhe came down wonderfully: ^k ſhe had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himſelf.

10 The adverſary hath ſpread out his hand upon all her ^{||} pleaſant things: for ſhe hath ſeen that the heathen entered into her ſanctuary, whom thou didſt command that ^l they ſhould not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people ſigh, ^m they ſeek bread; they have given their pleaſant things for meat ^{||} to relieve the ſoul: ſee, O LORD, and conſider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ ^{||} Is it nothing to you, all ye that [†] paſs by? behold, and ſee ⁿ if there be any ſorrow like unto my ſorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he ſent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth againſt them: he hath ſpread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back; he hath made me deſolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my tranſgreſſions is bound by his hand; they are wretched, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my ſtrength to fall; the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to riſe up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the miſt of me; he hath called an aſſembly againſt me to cruſh my young men: ^o the LORD hath trodden ^{||} the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

16 For theſe things I weep; ^p mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, becauſe the comforter that ſhould [†] relieve my ſoul is far from me; my children are deſolate, becauſe the enemy prevailed.

17 ^q Zion ſpreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adverſaries ſhould be round about him: Jeruſalem is as a menſtruous woman among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is ^r righteous; for I have ^s rebelled againſt his [†] commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my ſorrow; my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but ^t they deceived me; my prieſts and mine elders gave up the gholt in the city, while they ſought their meat to relieve their ſouls.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in diſtreſs; my ^u bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievouſly rebelled: ^v abroad the ſword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I ſigh; there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies

CHAP. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem: 20 he complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ^a and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not ^b his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, ^c and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath [†] brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: ^d he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, ^e and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew [†] all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^f taken away his tabernacle, ^g as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: ^h the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath [†] given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ⁱ they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; ^k he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [†] destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; ^l her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her ^m prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ⁿ sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have ^o cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ^p Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^q my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because ^r the children and the sucklings ^s swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned, as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

14 Thy ^t prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 ^u All that pass ^v by ^w clap their hands at thee; they hiss ^x and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call ^y The Perfection of beauty, The Joy of the whole earth?

16 ^z All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee; they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly ^a this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had ^b devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: ^c he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied; and he hath caused ^d thine enemy to rejoice over thee: he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD. O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night;

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is ^k humbled in me.

21 This I ^l recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ ^m It is of the LORDS mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning:
great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my ⁿ portion, faith
my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope ^o and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 ^p He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 ^q He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For ^r he doth not afflict ^s willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of || the most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause,
the LORD || approveth not.

37 ¶ Who is he ^t that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not ^u evil and good.

39 ^v Wherefore doth a living man || complain, ^w a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 ^x Let us lift up our heart with a great cloud, and a fire † infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber out of the midst of the fire :

5 ^c Also out of the midst thereof came the likenesses of four living creatures. And ^f this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 ^h And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were † straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled ^h like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ⁱ Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for ^k the likeness of their faces, ^l they four had the face of a man ^m and the face of a lion on the right side; ⁿ and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; ^o they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were ‖ stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ^p two covered their bodies.

12 And ^q they went every one straight forward: ^r whether the spirit was to go they went; and ^s they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likenesses of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ^t and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now, as I beheld the living creatures, behold, one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^v The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl; and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides; ^z and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ‖ rings were full of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went the wheels went by them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^y Whithersoever the spirit was to go they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ‖ of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^z When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ‖ of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likenesses of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ^a And when they went I heard the noise of their wings ^b like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech as the noise of an host: when they stood they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likenesses of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^d And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire, round about within it; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^e As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. ^f This was the appearance of the likenesses of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it ^g I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

C H A P. II.

1 Ezekiel's commission: 6 his instruction: 9 the roll of his heavy prophecy.

And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children, and stiff hearted: I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though scribes and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions; be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee: Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein.

10 And he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

C H A P. III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll: 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy; 22 of his typical hands, and the shutting and opening of his mouth.

Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel:

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: || surely had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant, harder than flint, have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass, at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side,

5 For I have laid upon thee the

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for rebellion.

And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barbers razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard; then take thee balances to weigh and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife; and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind: and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like; because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations; therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger, and in fury, and in furious rebukes: I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread;

17 So will I send upon you famine, and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee: I the Lord have spoken it.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your || images shall be broken; and b I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will † lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you; and c ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ d Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because e I am broken with their whorish heart which hath departed from me, and f with their eyes which go a whoring after their idols: and g they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, Smite h with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then i shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, k upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel,

3 An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and b will judge thee according to thy ways, and will † recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And c mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: d and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it † watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 e The morning is come upon thee, f thou that dwellest in the land: g the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the || founding again of the mountains.

1 Ezekiel's vision of jealousy. 7 The chambers of imagery.

And it came to pass, in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that ^a the hand of the LORD God fell there upon me.

2 ^b Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins, even downward, fire; and from his loins, even upward, as the appearance of brightness, ^c as the colour of amber.

3 And he ^d put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^e saw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and, behold, northward, at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and, when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and, when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtray'd upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, ^fThe LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORDS house, which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORDS house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, ^gwere about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipp'd ^hthe sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? ¶ Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they ^kcry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, [†]which lieth toward the north, and every man [†]a slaughter-weapon in his hand;

5 ¶ And to the others he said in [†]mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and finite; ^elet not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, ⁱAh Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel, in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah ^{is} exceeding great, and the land ^{is} full of blood, and the city full of ^{||}perversefens: for they say, ^kThe LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; ^{but} I will recompense their way upon their head.

19 And ^p the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them; and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORDS house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 ^q This is the living creature that ^q I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

q Ch. 1. 22.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, ° Your slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Israel; ^f and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ^g ye shall know that I am the LORD: ^h for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, ° Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get ye far from the LORD; unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, ⁱ yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And ^k I will give them one heart, and I will put ^l a new spirit within you: and I will take ^m the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: ⁿ and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But ^o for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, ° I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above

23 And ^p the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^q upon the mountain ^r which is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterward the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded : I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I † digged through the wall with mine hand ; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou ?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am your sign : like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them ; † they shall remove, and go into captivity.

12 And ⁴ the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth ; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby : he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My ^e net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare : and ^f I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans ; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And ^g I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands ; and ^h I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave † a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come ; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, ⁱ eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness ;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel, They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from † all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate ; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, ^k The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth ?

23 Tell them, therefore, Thus saith the Lord God, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel ; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For ^l there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD. I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass ; it shall be no more prolonged : for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 ^m Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is ⁿ for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, There shall none of my words be prolonged any more ; but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it, albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lyes, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lyes: they shall not be in the assembly of my people; neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 ¶ Because, even because, they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace: and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Woe to the women that sew pillows to all arm-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lyes?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with lyes ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life;

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; but they only shall be delivered themselves.

20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall ^{but} deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord GOD, || How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 ¶ Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, ^{both} sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, ^{even} concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings; and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XVI.

1 By a wretched infant is shewed the state of Jerusalem : 6 Gods love to her : 15 her unnatural whoredoms.

A Gain the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem, Thy [†] birth ^a and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; ^b thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, ^c in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water ^{||} to supple thee : thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee : but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee ^{||} polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live ; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 ^d I have [†] caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to [†] excellent ornaments : thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love ; ^e and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness ; yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water ; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy [†] blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I [†] put bracelets upon thine hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy [†] forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver ; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work . thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil ; and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty : for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, ^e and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by , his it was.

16 ^b And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with diverse colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon : the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images [†] of men, and didst commit whoredom with them :

18 And tookest thy brodered garments and coveredst them ; and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before me.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, where-with I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for [†] a sweet savour : and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 ⁱ Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast born unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them [†] to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them ?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy ^k youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee ! saith the Lord God,) ^l

24 That ¹ thou hast also built unto thee an ^{||} eminent place, and ^m hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with ^athe Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, ^athe || daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 ^bThou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that ^athou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores; but ^athou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and ^ahirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:

36 Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, ^aas women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down ^athine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take ^athy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, ^aand they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall ^aburn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore, ^aI also will recompense thy way upon ^athine head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use ^athis proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mothers daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: ^ayour mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand; and ^athy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, ^aas if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

1 By two eagles and a vine it is shewed Gods judgment upon Jerusalem.

2 By the planting of a cedar it shewed the kingdom of Christ.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him : so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle, with great wings, and many feathers ; and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good [†] soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 ^c Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the kings seed, and made a covenant with him, ^d and hath † taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, † but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But ^e he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, † that they might give him horses and much people: ^f shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely ^h in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh, with his mighty army and great company, make for him in the war, ⁱ by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will ^kspread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And ^lall his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent.

23 ^m In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken, and have done it.

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now, lo, if he beget a son that seeth all his fathers sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like;

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbours wife;

16 Neither hath oppressed any, nor hath not with-holden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father; neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 ¶ But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 ¶ Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 ¶ Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God.

Repent, and turn || yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart, and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn || yourselves, and live ye.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel: 5 he rehearseth their rebellions in Egypt, &c.: 33 he promiseth to gather them.

And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that ^a certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 ^{||} But I wrought for my names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

14 ^a But I wrought for my names fake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also ^o I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, ^p which is the glory of all lands;

16 ^q Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

19 I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them:

20 ^r And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against me; they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, ^s which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 ^t Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and ^u wrought for my names fake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that ^x I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 ^y Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

25 Wherefore ^z I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live.

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass ^a through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have [†] committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then ^b they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their ^c sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then ¶ I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamiah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and ^d shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you.

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into ¶ the bond of the covenant:

38 And ^e I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and ^f they shall not enter

39 ^b As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me; but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For ^c in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the ¶ first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your † sweet favour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 ^d And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And ^e there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ^f ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 ^g And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my names sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

45 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 ^h Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

ⁱ Ezekiel prophesieth against all the land of Israel. 8 The sharp and bright sword against Jerusalem, &c.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 ^j Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and ^k drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north;

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath; it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh, therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings, because it cometh; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees † shall be weak as water: behold it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

8 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Say, ^l A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished.

10 It is sharpened to make a fore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? ¶ it containeth the rod of my son as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled; this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel; ¶ terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: ^m smite, therefore, upon thy thigh.

13 ¶ Because it is a trial; and what if the sword condemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 I have set the ‖ point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is ‖ wrapped up for the slaughter.

17 I will also † smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land; and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to ^e Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the † parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his ‖ arrows bright, he consulted with † images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint † † captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering-rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight ‖ to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou profane wicked prince of Israel, ^b whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end;

26 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same:

exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 † I will overturn, overturn, overturn it; ⁱ and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furnished, to consume because of the glittering;

29 Whiles they ⁱ see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lye unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked ^m whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 ‖ ⁿ Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, ^o in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of ‖ brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by || oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are [†] men that carry tales to shed blood; [†] and in thee they eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit lewdness;

10 In thee have they [†] discovered their fathers nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was [†] set apart for pollution.

11 And || one hath committed abomination with his neighbours' wife; and || another [†] hath || lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his [†] sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee ^m have they taken gifts to shed blood; ⁿ thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 ¶ Behold, therefore, I have ^o smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? ^p I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And ^q I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and ^r will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou || shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^s the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the [†] dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 [†] As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the Lord have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 ^t There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravining the prey: they ^u have devoured souls; ^{*} they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have [†] violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no ^v difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her ^w princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravining the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And ^x her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, ^b seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used || oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger [†] wrongfully.

30 ^y And I sought for a man among them that should ^a make up the hedge, and ^c stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: ^z their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

3 And ^b they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister; and ^c they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Samaria is ^d Aholah, and Jerusalem ^e Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^f the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she ^g committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were ^h the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ⁱ Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^j discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^k famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And ^l when her sister Aholibah saw this, ^m she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms ⁿ more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ^o Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way;

14 And that the increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And ^p as soon as she saw them with her eyes she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the ^q Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and ^r her mind was ^s alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then ^t my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, ^u whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians, for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, ^v Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, ^w Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy ^x fair jewels.

27 Thus ^y will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and ^a shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her ^a cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou shalt drink of thy sisters cup deep and large; thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt ^y even drink it, and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou ^z hast forgotten me, and ^a cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou ^b judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and ^c blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and have also caused their sons, ^d whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and ^e have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, ^f thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men ^g to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came, for whom thou didst wash thyself, ^h paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And sattest upon a ⁱ stately ^h bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men ^j of the common sort were brought ^k Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit ^l whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her; as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot, so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men they shall ^m judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them ⁿ to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and ^o dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus ^p will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: ^q and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 By a boiling pot, 6 is shewed Jerusalem's destruction. 15 By Ezekiel not mourning for his wife, 19 is shewed the Jews calamity to be beyond all sorrow.

A Gain, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem ^r this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, ^s Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it.

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, ^c Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; ^d she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust:

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, ^e Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burnt.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the bras of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lyes, and her great scum went forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, ^f till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 ^g I the LORD have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, ^h neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears ⁱ run down.

17 ^j Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, ^k bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy ^l lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and ^m that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ⁿ ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ^o ye shall not mourn nor weep. but ^p ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus ^q Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; ^r and when this cometh, ^s ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and ^t that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That ^u he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 ^v In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

14 And h I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, i Because k the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it \parallel for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, l I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, m and destroy the remnant of the \parallel sea-coast.

1 Tyrus, for insulting against Jerusalem, is threatened: 7 Nebuchadrezzars power against her: 15 the mourning for her.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, n because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, o Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; p and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, q a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people:

5 [†] By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick halt thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches :

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God ;

7 Behold, therefore, I will bring strangers upon thee, ^e the terrible of the nations : and they shall draw thy swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God ? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that || slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of strangers : for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, Take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in ^f Eden, the garden of God ; every precious stone was thy covering, the || sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the || beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the || emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold : the workmanship of ^g thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee, in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth ; and I have set thee so : thou wast upon the holy mountain of God : thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned : therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God ; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty ; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness : I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick ; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee ; and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee : ^h thou shalt be [†] a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face ⁱ against Zidon, and prophesy against it ;

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon ; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee ; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her,

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets ; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side ; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more ^k a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them that despised them ; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God, When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall dwell || safely therein, and shall build houses, and ^l plant vineyards ; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that || despise them round about them ; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, ^bBehold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^cdragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But ^dI will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee, and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the [†]open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a ^estaff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 ^fWhen they took hold of thee by thy hand thou didst break and rend all their shoulder; and when they leaned upon thee thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD; because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt [†]utterly waste and desolate, ^gfrom the tower of [†]Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 ^hNo foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 ⁱAnd I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord GOD, At the ^kend of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their ^{||}habitation; and they shall be there a [†]base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^mNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled; yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it;

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and [†]take her spoil, and take her prey, and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt ^{||}for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

21 ¶ In that day ⁿwill I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, || when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches : for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^e garden of God could not hide him; the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chefnut-trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have, therefore, delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; † he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, ^f the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the vallies his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 By the duty of a watchman Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways.

30 The hypocrisy of the captive Jews.

A Gain the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, † When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

3 If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then † whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, his blood shall be upon him: but he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 ¶ Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we b pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, A; I live, saith the Lord GOD, c I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for d why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The e righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his f righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do † that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked g restore the pledge, h give again that he had robbed, walk in i the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the LORD is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, k The way of the LORD is not equal. O ye house of Israel; I will judge you every one after his ways.

out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, ^a The city is smitten.

22 Now ^o the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escap'd came, and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; ^p and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD
came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, ^q they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, ^r Ye eat with the blood, and ^s lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbours wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field ^t will I give to the beasts ^u to be devoured; and they that be in the forts, and ^v in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

28 ^x For I will lay the land ^y most desolate, and the ^z pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking ¶ against thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And ^z they come unto thee ^a as the people cometh, and ¶ they ^b sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words; but they will not do them: ^c for with their mouth ^d they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as ^e a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 ^c And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then ^d shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

1 The shepherds reprov'd: 7 their his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 ^a Son of man, prophecy against the shepherds of Israel, prophecy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds, ^b Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 ^c Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ^d ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 ^e The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye fought that which was lost; but with ^f force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 ^g And they were scattered, ¶ because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill; yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock:

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear
the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted by the heathens destruction, and Gods blessings. 16 Israel rejected for sin.

Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto the ^a mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD :

2 Thus saith the Lord God, Because ^b the enemy hath said against you, Aha, ^c even the ancient high places are ours in possession ;

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God, [†] Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and || ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people :

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God ; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains and to the hills, to the || rivers and to the vallies, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about :

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, ^d Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despightful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophecy, therefore, concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the vallies, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen :

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown.

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it : and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded :

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit : and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings; ^e and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

defiled it by their own way, and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way, and according to their doings, I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy names sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

24 For ^h I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ ⁱ Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A ^k new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my ^l Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; ^m and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses; and ⁿ I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and ^o lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then ^p shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and ^q shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 ^r Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of ^s Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen, that are left round about you, shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: ^t I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the [†] holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee : ° I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field ; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles ; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel ; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more ; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God ; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the hand-staves and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years ;

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forest ; for they shall burn the weapons with fire : and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place, there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea ; and it shall stop the noses of the passengers : and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude ; and they shall call it, The valley of Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them ; and it shall be to them a renown, the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it : after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a mans bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak to every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves and come ; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity : because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies ; so fell they all by the sword.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side on the sides of the porch, and upon the side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

1 The chambers for the priests: 13 the use thereof. 15 The measures of the outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north; and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth, inward a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now, the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries || were higher than these, || than the lower, and than the middlemost, of the building.

|| Or, did eat of these.
|| Or, and the building consisted of the lower and the middlemost.

Before

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the outer court on the fore-part of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, 10, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And || from under these chambers was || the entry on the east side, || as one goeth into them from the outer court.

|| Or, from the place.
|| Or, as that brought me.
|| Or, as we came.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers, and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD ^a shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and ^b the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 ¶ Now, when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east † side with the measuring-reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindereth Gods presence.

Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 ^a And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east; and ^b his voice was like a noise of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was ^c according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw || when I came ^d to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, ^e the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and ^f the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by ^g the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 ^h In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, || and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed; wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou, son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the || pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof; and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain, the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy: behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ⁱ The cubit is a cubit and an handbreadth; even the [†] bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the [†] edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So [†] the altar shall be four cubits; and from [†] the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about: and ^k his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 ^l And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^m a young bullock for a sin-offering.

Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house; they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy places; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

¶ The Book of DANIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 Of Jehoiakims captivity. 8 Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah, refusing the kings portion, do prosper with pulse and water.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^a came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried ^b into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; ^c and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^{*} certain of the children of Israel, and of the kings seed, and of the princes;

4 Children ^d in whom was no blemish, but well-favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as ^e had ability in them to stand in the kings palace, and ^e whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the kings meat, and of [†] the wine which he drank; so nourishing them three years, that, at the end thereof, they might [†] stand before the king.

6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah;

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names; [†] for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Michael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

17 ¶ As for these four children, God gave them ^kknowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and ¶ Daniel had ^lunderstanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now, at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore ^mstood they before the king.

20 ⁿAnd in all matters of [†]wisdom and understanding that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 ^oAnd Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetting his dream, requirerh it of the Chaldeans. 19 The dream is revealed to Daniel. 31 The dream, and interpretation. 46 Daniels advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^awherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the forcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, ^bO king, live for ever; tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be ^ccut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill:

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts, and ¶ rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again, and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would [†]gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ^dthere is but one decree for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the kings matter; therefore ^ethere is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can shew it before the king ^eexcept the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel [†]answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the [†]captain of the kings guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the kings captain, Why is the decree [†]so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation:

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions;

18 ^fThat they would desire mercies [†]of the God of heaven concerning this secret, ¶ that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel ^gin a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wife ^{men} of Babylon : he went and said thus unto him, Destroy not the wife ^{men} of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, † I have found a man of the † captives of Judah that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

46 [¶] Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation ^b and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, ⁱ and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldst reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, ^k and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and ¹ chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, ^m and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

C H A P. III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicateth a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, accused.

280. Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried [†] aloud, To you [†] it is commanded, ^o O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ^{||} [†] dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the same hour ^b be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 [¶] Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, ^c O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 ^d There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, [†] have not regarded thee, they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 [¶] Then Nebuchadnezzar, in his rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it ^{||} true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego? do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; ^e and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ^f we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God, whom we serve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the kings commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the kings counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the kings word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that can deliver after this sort.

30 ¶ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

22 ^o My God hath sent his angel, and hath ^p shut the lions mouths that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, ^q because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had ^r the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 ^t I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; ^u for he is the living God, and his kingdom stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be ^v destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions 28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

C H A P. VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts, 9 and of Gods kingdom: 15 the interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed; then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagles wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a mans heart was given to it.

5 And, behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and, lo, another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: a thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet:

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 ^a And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 ^b And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, ^c and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, ^d until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

26 ^e But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the ^f kingdom, and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, ^g and all ^h dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, ⁱ my cogitations much troubled me; and my countenance changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart.

1 Daniels vision of the ram and he-goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice.

In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me ^a at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; (and it came to pass when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam;) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than [†] the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, so that no beasts might stand before him; neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; ^b but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And, as I was considering, behold, an he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and ^{||} touched not the ground: and the goat had [†] a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was strong the great horn was broken; and for it came up four ^c notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 ^d And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, ^e toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the ^f pleasant land.

10 ^g And it waxed great, even ^{||} to the host of heaven; and ^h it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, ⁱ he magnified himself even ^{||} to ^k the prince of the host, [†] and ^{||} by him ^m the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And ^{||} an host was given him against the daily sacrifice ⁿ by reason of transgression, and it cast down ^o the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 [¶] Then I heard ^p one saint speaking, and another saint said unto ^{||} [†] that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression ^{||} of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred [†] days; then shall the sanctuary be [†] cleansed.

15 [¶] And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voice [¶] between the banks of Ulai, which called

CHAP. IX.

1 Daniel, confessing his sin, 16 prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem.

20 The seventy weeks.

IN the first year ^a of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, || which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans ;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, when of the word of the Lord came to ^b Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes :

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O⁴ LORD, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments :

5^c We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgements :

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness || belongeth unto thee; but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespasses that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, ^f to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9th To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him :

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the ^h law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As ^{it} is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us:
yet † made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth..

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for ^m the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, ⁿ that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast [†] gotten thee ^o renown, as at this day; ^p we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, ^q according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, ^r thy holy mountain: because for our sins, ^s and for the iniquities of our fathers, ^t Jerusalem and thy people ^u are become a reproach to all ^{that are} about us.

17 Now, therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, ^x and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary ^y that is desolate, ^z for the Lords sake.

18 ^a O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, ^b and behold our desolations, and the city ^c [†] which is called by thy name: for we do not [†] present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, ^d for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ ^e And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man ^f Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly [†] swiftly, ^g touched me ^h about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth [†] to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the [†] commandment came forth, and ⁱ I am come to shew thee; ^k for thou art [†] greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 ^{*} Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, [†] to finish the transgression, and [†] to make an end of sins, [†] and to make reconciliation for iniquity, ^m and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and [†] prophecy, ⁿ and to anoint the most Holy.

25 ^o Knew therefore, and understand, [†] that ^p from the going forth of the commandment [†] to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the [†] Messiah ^q the Prince, [†] shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street [†] shall be built again, and the [†] wall, [†] even [†] in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks ^r shall Messiah be cut off, [†] but not for himself: [†] and ^r the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city, and the sanctuary; [†] and the end thereof [†] shall be ^x with a flood, and unto the end of the war [†] desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm [†] the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, [†] and for the overspreading of ^y abominations he shall make it desolate, ^z even until the consummation, and that determined, shall be poured [†] upon the desolate.

in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which felt me upon my knees, and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael one of the chief princes came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And, when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for, as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man, greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things but Michael your prince.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Leagues. &c. between the kings of the north and south.

¶ Lio 1. in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I. stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth: Behold there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begot her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortresses of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

Before

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with † their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons || shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces; and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: || then shall he return, and be stirred up, ⁸ even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come † after certain years with a great army, and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south; also † the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take † the most fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither † his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him ¹⁶ shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the || † glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and || upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, † corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, † neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince † for his own behalf shall cause † the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble, and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up || in his estate † a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in † anger nor in battle.

21 And || in his estate ²¹ shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 † And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; ²² yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter || peaceably even upon the fittest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers fathers; ²⁴ he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches; yea, and he shall † forecat his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand. for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings † hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for ²⁷ yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches: and † his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; ²⁹ but it shall not be as the former, ²⁹ or as the latter.

30 || ³⁰ For the ships of Chittim shall come against him; and therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation ³⁰ against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, ³⁰ and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, ³¹ and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the 39 Thus shall he do in the ^q most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for ^r gain.

40 ^s And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, ^t and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, ^u and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the || glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, ^v even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall ^w stretch forth his hand also upon the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape, 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palaces between the seas in ^x the || glorious holy mountain; ^y yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles. 5 Daniel heareth the times, but understandeth them not.

And at that time shall ^z Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people, ^a and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, ^b every one that shall be found written in ^c the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, ^d some to everlasting life, and some to shame ^e and everlasting contempt.

3 And ^f they that be || wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; ^g and they that turn many to righteousness ^h as the stars for ever and ever.

4 ⁱ But thou, O Daniel, ^j shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ^k Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the ^l bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank ^m of the river.

6 And ⁿ one said to the man clothed ^o in linen, which was || upon the waters of the river, ^p How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he ^q held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him ^r that liveth for ever, ^s that it shall be for a time, times, and || an half; ^t and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

shall languish with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will \dagger destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are \dagger destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me; \therefore therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they \dagger set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be \circ like people, like priest; and I will \dagger punish them for their ways, and \dagger reward them their doings.

10 For \dagger they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase; because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for \dagger the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 \dagger They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: \therefore therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 ¶ I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall \parallel fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; \circ and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to \dagger Beth-aven, \dagger nor \dagger swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place, 17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink \dagger is sour; they have committed whoredom continually: \circ her \dagger rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and \dagger they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

C H A P. V.

God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins.

Hear ye this, O priests; and hear ye ear, O house of the king: for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are profound to make slaughter, \parallel though I have \dagger been \dagger a rebuker of them all.

3 ¶ I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 \dagger ¶ They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for \dagger the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And \circ the pride of Israel doth testify to his face; therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 \dagger They shall go with their flocks, and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten strange children: now shall \circ a month devour them with their portions.

8 ¶ Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that \circ remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as \parallel rottenness.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A complaint of their untowardness.

Come, and let us return unto the LORD : for ^a he hath torn, and he will heal us ; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 ^b After two days will he revive us ; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD : his going forth is prepared as the morning ; and ^c he shall come unto us ^d as the rain ; as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ ^e O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee ? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee ? for your ^{||} goodness ^f is ^{||} as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed ^{||} them by the prophets ; I have slain them by the words of my mouth ; ^{||} and thy judgments ^{||} are as the light ^{||} that goeth forth.

6 For I desired ^{||} mercy, and ^{||} not sacrifice ; and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they, ^{||} like men, ^{||} have transgressed the covenant : there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 ^{||} Gilead ^{||} is a city of them that work
iniquity, and is ^{||} polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, ^{||} so ^{||} the company of priests murder in the way ^{||} by consent ; for they ^{||} commit ^{||} ^{||} iniquities.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel : there is the whore-dom of Ephraim ; Israel is defiled.

11 Alas, O Judah, ^{||} he hath fed an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

C H A P. VII.

1 Israel reproveth for manifold sins.
11 Gods wrath against them for their hypocrisy.

When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the ^{||} wickedness of Samaria : for they commit falsehood ; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers ^{||} spoileth without :

2 And they ^{||} consider not in their hearts ^{||} that I remember all their wickedness : now their own doings have beset them about ; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes ^a with their lyes.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, ^{||} ^{||} who ceaseth ^{||} from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be lea-vened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made ^{||} him sick ^{||} with bottles of wine : he stretched out his hand with scorn.

6 For they have ^{||} made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait : their baker sleepeth all the night ; in the morning it burning as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges : ^b all their kings are fallen ; ^c there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he ^d hath mixed himself among the people : Ephraim is a cake, not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth ^{||} it not ; yea, gray hairs are ^{||} here and there upon him, yet he knoweth it not.

10 And the ^e pride of Israel testi-fieth to his face : and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ ^f Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart : ^{||} they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them ; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven ;
I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them ! for they have sied from me ; ^{||} destruction unto them ! because they have transgressed against me : though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lyes against me.

14 ^{||} And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds : they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

CHAP. IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people : for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God ; thou hast loved a reward || upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the || wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORDS land ; c but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and d they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 e They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him : f their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners ; all that eat thereof shall be polluted : for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD ?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of † destruction : Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them : || the pleasant places for their silver, g nettles shall possess them ; thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come ; Israel shall know its : the prophet is a fool, the † h spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The i watchman of Ephraim was with my God : but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred || in the house of his God.

9 k They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of l Gibeah : m therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness ; I saw your fathers as n the first-ripe in the fig-tree at her first time : but they went to o Baal-peor, and p separated themselves q unto that shame : and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 r Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left : yea, woe also to them when I depart from them !

13 Ephraim, s as I saw Tyrus, t planted in a pleasant place : but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them ^a a mis-carrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness ^a is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: ^a all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even ^a the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

C H A P. X.

Israel is reproved and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

1 Israel is ^a an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit ^b he hath increased the altars: according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly ^a images.

2 ^a Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall ^a break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 ^a For now they shall say, We have no king; because we feared not the LORD, what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up ^a as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and ^a the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, ^a for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to ^a king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed ^a of his own counsel.

7 ^a As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon ^a the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 ^a O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah; there they stood:

the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and ^a the people shall be gathered against them, ^a when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 ^a And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon ^a her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 ^a Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^a break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 ^a Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies. Because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men;

14 ^a Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled ^a Beth-arbel in the day of battle: ^a the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of ^a your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

C H A P. XI.

The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 his judgment.

1 When Israel was a child then I loved him, and ^a called ^a my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that ^a take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 ^a He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, ^a because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: ^a though they called them to the most High, ^a none at all would exalt him.

1 Ephraim and Judah reproved. 3 By former favours to Jacob they are exhorted to repentance.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy

12 ^a The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 ^r The sorrows of a travailling woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay [†] long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 [†] I will ransom them from [†] the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. [†] O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: [†] repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 ¶ Though ^{*} he be fruitful among his brethren, [†] an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all [†] pleasant vessels.

CHAP. XIV.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A promise of Gods blessing.

O Israel, ^a return unto the LORD thy God; ^b for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD; say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and ^{||} receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 ^d Asshur shall not save us; ^e we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 ¶ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall ^{||} grow as the lily, and [†] cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return: they shall revive as the corn, and ^{||} grow as the vine: the ^{||} scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree: from me is thy fruit found.

9 ^a Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for ^b the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

CHAP. I.

1 Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn: 14 he prescribeth solemn fasting and prayer, &c.

THE word of the LORD came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men; and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 ^a Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 [†] That which the palmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For ^c a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, ^d whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and [†] barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 ^e The meat-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORDS ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth, for the corn is wasted; the new wine is ^{||} dried up, the oil languisheth.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because ^f joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for ^e the meat-offering and the drink-offering is with-holden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ ^h Sanctify ye a fast, call ⁱ a solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 15 ^k Alas for the day! for ^l the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, ^m joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The ⁿ seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for ⁿ the fire hath devoured the ^o pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field ^o cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

C H A P. II

1 The terribleness of Gods judgment: 12 he exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 and promiseth a blessing thereon.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for ^a the day of the LORD cometh, for ^b it is nigh at hand;

2 ^b A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: ^c a great people and a strong; ^d there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years ^e of many generations:

3 ^e A fire devoureth before them, and behind them a flame burneth:

the land is as ^f the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 ^g The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen so shall they run.

5 ^h Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained, ⁱ all faces shall gather ^j blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword ^k they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: ^k the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 ^l And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great; for he is strong that executeth his word: for the ^m day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, ⁿ Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning, 13 And ^o rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn ^p unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 ^q Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave ^r a blessing behind him, even ^s a meat-offering and a drink-offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ ^t Blow the trumpet in Zion, ^u sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly,

16 Gather the people, ^v sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders; gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: ^w let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

18 ¶ Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith ; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen :

20 But ^b I will remove far off from you ^c the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face ^d toward the east sea, and his hinder part ^e toward the utmost sea ; and his stink shall come up, and his ill favour shall come up, because ^f he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, O land ; be glad and rejoice : for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field ; for ^g the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God : for he hath given you || the former rain ^h moderately, and he ⁱ will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, ^q and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people ; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine ? will ye render me a recompence ? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head ;

four, I will not turn away the punish-

3 For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

5 But seek not ^a Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to ^b Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and ^c Beth-el shall come to nought.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins; they afflict the just, they take ⁱ a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore ^k the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 ^l Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: ^m it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas!

alas! and they shall call the husband-man to mourning, and ⁿ such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for ^o I will pass through thee, saith the Lord.

18 ^p Woe unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

19 ^q As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ I hate, I despise your feasts-days, and I will not ^r smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept ^s them; neither will I regard the ^t peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment ^u run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 ^v Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne ^w the tabernacle ^x of your Moloch and Chinn your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves:

city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

C H A P. VIII.

1 By a basket of summer-fruit is shewed Israel's end. 4 Oppression reproved.

11 A famine of the word threatened.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, a basket of summer-fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer-fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, ^a The end is come upon my people of Israel; ^b I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple [†] shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; ^c they shall cast them forth [†] with silence.

4 [¶] Hear this, O ye that ^d swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the ^{||} new-moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and ^e the sabbath, that we may [†] set forth wheat, ^f making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and [†] falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for ^g silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by ^h the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, ⁱ as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, ^k that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

10 ^l And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; ^m and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head, ⁿ and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 [¶] Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but ^o of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that ^p swear by ^q the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The [†] manner ^r of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

C H A P. IX.

1 The certainty of the desolation. 11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David, and of the captivity of Israel.

I saw the Lord standing upon the altar; and ^s he said, Smite the ^{||} lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and ^{||} cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: ^t he that fleeth of them shall not flee away; and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 ^u Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; ^v though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, ^w thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and ^x I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hosts ^y is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

6 ^z It is he that buildeth his ^{||} [†] storied in the heaven, and hath founded his ^{||} troop in the earth; he that ^{aa} calleth by the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: ^{ab} The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt and the ^{ac} Philistines from ^{ad} Caphtor, and the Syrians from ^{ae} Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and ^{af} I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly terly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will [†] lift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least [†] grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, [†] which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 ¶ In that day will I raise up the [†] tabernacle of David that is fallen, and [†] close up the breaches thereof, and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old :

12 [†] That they may possess the remnant of [†] Edom, and of all the heathen, [†] which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

O B A D I A H.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and unwinatinal behaviour to Jacob in distress. 17 The salvation and victories of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God [†] concerning Edom, [†] We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen; thou art greatly despised.

3 ¶ The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts [†] of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 [†] Though thou exalt [†] thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If [†] thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, [†] would they not leave [†] some grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee [†] even to the border; [†] the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; [†] they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: [†] there is none understanding [†] in him.

13 Behold, [†] the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that [†] soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop [†] sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and [†] they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit [†] them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

8 [†] Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 ¶ For [†] thy [†] violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and [†] thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers [†] carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But [†] thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have [†] spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their [†] substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the cros- way, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have [†] delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: ^k as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 ¶ But upon mount Zion ^m shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob ⁿ shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau: for the LORD hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south ^o shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even ^p unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And ^q saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the ^r kingdom shall be the LORDS.

C H A P. I.

1 Jonah, sent by God to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 he is overtaken by a tempest and discovered, 11 cast into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto ^a ¶ Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for ^c their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah ^d rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to ^e Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish ^f from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD [†] sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship [†] was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and ^g cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down ^h into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, ⁱ if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men [†] exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea [†] may be calm unto us? (for the sea [†] wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men [†] rowed hard to bring it to the land, but they could not; for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea [†] ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and [†] offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

C H A P. II.

1 The prayer of Jonah: 10 he is delivered from the fish.

Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fishes belly,

2 And said, I^a cried || by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of || hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the † midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: ^b all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4^c Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The^d waters compassed me about even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the † bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life^e from || corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came in unto thee into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe^f lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of^g thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. ^h Salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

C H A P. III.

1 Jonah, sent again to Nineveh; preacheth to the Ninevites: 5 upon their return from evil, 10 God repenteth.

And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. (Now Nineveh was an † exceeding great city of three days journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a days journey, and^a he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh^b believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth,^c and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and † published through Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his † nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God; yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from^d the violence that is in their hands:

9^e Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

C H A P. IV.

1 Jonah, repining at Gods mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? therefore I^a fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a^b gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3^c Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for^d it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, || Dost thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a † † gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah † was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm, when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a † vehement east wind; and the sun beat vise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament † with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled; † he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! ¶ turning away, he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall † cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 ¶ † Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophecy: they shall not prophecy to them that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named The house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD ¶ straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh † uprightly?

8 Even † of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe † with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The ¶ women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a fore destruction.

11 If a man, ¶ walking in the spirit and falsehood, do lye, saying, I will prophecy unto thee of wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold:
they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The Breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it; and their king shall pass before them, † and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAP. III.

1 The cruelty of the princes, 5 and the falsehood of the prophets. 8 The ill-grounded security of them both.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; † Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones:

3 Who also † eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and † as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then † shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them;
he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD † concerning the prophets that make † my people err, that † bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and † he that putteth not into their mouths they even prepare war against him;

6 † Therefore night shall be unto-you, † that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, † that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their † lips: for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, † to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 † They build up Zion with † blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 † The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: † yet will they lean upon the LORD, † and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be † plowed as a field; † and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAP. IV.

1 The glory, 3 peace, 6 restoration,
11 and victory of the church.

BUT † in the last days it shall come † to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain

mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into ^b plough-shares, and their spears into ^b pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 ^c But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For ^d all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ^e we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 ¶ In that day, saith the LORD, ^f will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that ^g halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD ^h shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now, why dost thou cry out aloud? ⁱ is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be desiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 ^k Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their

2 But thou, ^a Beth-lehem Ephraim, though thou be little ^b among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be Ruler in Israel; ^c whose goings forth have been from of old, from ^d everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that the which travail hath brought forth; then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and ^e feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God: and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this ^f man ^g shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land; and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight ^h principal men.

6 And they shall ⁱ waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod ^j in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people ^k as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of ^l sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

1 Gods controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

Hear ye now what the LORD saith ; Arise, contend thou || before the ^a mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 ^b Hear ye, O mountains, ^c the LORDS controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth : for ^d the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, ^e what have I done unto thee ? and wherein have I wearied thee ? testify against me.

4 ^f For I brought thee up out of the land of ^g Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants ; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what ^h Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from ⁱ Shittim unto Gilgal ; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God ? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves [†] of a year old ?

7 ^k Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil ? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my [†] body for the sin of my soul ?

8 He hath [†] shewed thee, O man, what is good : and what doth the LORD require, of thee, ^m but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to [†] walk humbly with thy God ?

9 The LORDS voice crieth unto the city, and || the man of wisdom shall see thy name : hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ || Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [†] scant measure ⁿ that is abominable ?

11 || Shall I count [†] them pure with ^o the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights ?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lyes, and [†] their tongue is deceitful in their mouth :

13 Therefore also will I make [†] thee sick in smiting thee, in making [†] thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 ^q Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied ; and thy casting down [†] shall be in the midst of thee ; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver ; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt ^r sow, but thou shalt not reap ; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil ; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For || the statutes of ^s Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of ^t Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels ; that I should make thee a || desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing : therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 The church, complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence in God : 8 her joy in hope of restoration.

Woe is me ! for I am as [†] when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the grape-gleanings of the vintage : there is no cluster to eat ; [†] my soul desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The ^b || good man is perished out of the earth ; and there is none upright among men : they all lie in wait for blood ; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, ^c the prince asketh, ^d and the judge [†] aseth for a reward ; and the great man he uttereth [†] his mischievous desire : so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them ^e is as a brier ; the most upright is sharper than a thorn-hedge : the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh ; now shall be their perplexity.

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait in faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldeans for insatiableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, &c.

I Will ⁱ stand upon my watch, and I set me upon the || tower, and will watch to see what he will say || unto me, and what I shall answer || † when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, ^b Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For ^c the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lye: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will ^d surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the ^e just shall live by his faith.

5 || Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, ^f he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire ^g as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, || Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that laddeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 ^h Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; ⁱ because of mens † blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

14 For the earth shall be filled || with the ^m knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

16 Thou art filled || with shame for glory; ⁿ drink thou also, and let thy forehead be uncovered: the cup of the LORDS right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid ^o because of mens blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 || What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a ^p teacher of lyes, that † the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

1 Haggai, reproving the peoples negligence, 7 inciteth them to build the house, 12 and promiseth Gods assistance therein. 14 The work prospereth.

IN^a the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD † by Haggai the prophet unto ^b Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel ‖ governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORDS house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 ^c Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now, therefore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, † Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home ^f I did ‖ blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore ^g the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I ^h called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and ⁱ upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, (as the LORD their God had sent him,) and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai, the LORDS messenger, in the LORDS message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel ^k governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came, and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts their God, 14 Then answered Haggai, and said, ^k So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD;

16 Since those days were, ^l when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 ¶ I smote you ^m with blasting, and with mildew, and with hail, ⁿ in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORDS temple was laid, consider it.

19 ^p Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel ^q governor of Judah, saying, ^r I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And ^s I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heaven; and ^t I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, ^u and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, ^c and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of ^b the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days ¶ there was no ^b hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be † prosperous; and the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ^b ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not;

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and ^a Damascus shall be the rest thereof; when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and ^b Zidon, though it be ^c very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and ^d heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, ^e the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 ^f Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful; and Ekron, for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell ^g in Ashdod; and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his † blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he shall be for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And ^h I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ ⁱ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and ¶ having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I ^k will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be ^l from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, ¶ by the blood of thy covenant, I have sent forth thy ^m prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ⁿ ye prisoners of hope; even to-day do I declare, that ^o I will render double unto thee;

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and ¶ subdue with sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they ¶ shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for ^q they shall be as the stones of a crown, ^r lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

1 God is to be sought unto, and not idols :
5 as he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

A Sk ye ^a of the LORD ^b rain ^c in the time of the latter rain ; so the LORD shall make ^d bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grafs in the field.

2 For the ^d idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lye, and have told false dreams ;
they ^e comfort in vain : therefore they went their way as a flock, they ^f were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, ^g and I ^h punished the goats : for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and ⁱ hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle-bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty ^j men, which ^k tread down their ene- mies in the mire of the streets in the battle : and they shall fight, because the LORD ^l is with them, and ^m the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them ; for I have mercy upon them, and they shall be as though I had not cast them off : for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine : yea, their children shall see ⁿ it, and be glad ; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them ; for I have redeemed them :
and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And ^o I will sow them among the people : and they shall remember me in far countries ; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 ¶ I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria : ^p and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and ^q place shall not be found for them.

11 ¶ And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up : and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD, and ^r they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD my God,

¶ MALACHI.

C H A P. I.

1 God by Malachi complaineth of the ingratitude of Israel, 6 and of the profane disrespect shown to Gods worship. 14 The curse of corrupt offerings.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacobs brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places: thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name; and ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar, and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

1 The priests reprov'd for profaning their covenant : 10 the people for strange marriages, and putting away their former wives, 17 for impiety.

And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 ^a If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will || corrupt your seed, and † spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and || one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 ^b My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him ^c for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 ^d The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 ^e For the priests lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: ^f for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye ^g have caused many to || stumble at the law; ^h ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore ⁱ have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but || † have been partial in the law.

10 ^k Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he || loved, ^m and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, || the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, ⁿ and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 ^o And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, inasmuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and ^p the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: ^q yet ^r is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And ^s did not he make one? Yet had he the || residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek † a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal || treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For ^t the LORD, the God of Israel, saith, || that he hateth † putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts; therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ^u Ye have wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil ^v is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where ^w is the God of judgment?

CHAP. III.

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the peoples rebellion, 8 sacrilege, 13 and infidelity. 16 Gods blessing on his people.

Behold, ^a I will send my messenger, and he shall ^b prepare the way before me: and the LORD whom ye seek shall suddenly come to his temple; ^c even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide ^d the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for ^e he is like a refiners fire, and like fullers soap:

3 And ^f he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then ^g shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in || former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment: and I will be a swift witness against the foreerers, and against the adulterers, ^h and against false

swearers, and against those that || oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow; and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, ¹ I change not; ² therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 ¶ Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them.

8 Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? ^m In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse; for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 ^a Burn ye all the tithes into ^o the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the ^p windows of heaven, and [†] ^q pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not [†] destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been [†] stout against me, saith the LORD; yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept [†] his ordinance, and that we have walked [†] mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now [†] we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickedness [†] are set up; yea, they that ^a tempt God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they ^{*} that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it: and [†] a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And ² they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my ^{||} ^a jewels; and ^b I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the ^d Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the ^e law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him ^f in Horeb, for all Israel, with ^g the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you ^h Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

¶ The GOSPEL according to St. MATTHEW.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph: 18 his conception and birth: 21, 23, his names, with their interpretation: Jesus born.

THE book of the ^a generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

² b Abraham begat Isaac, and ^c Isaac begat Jacob, and ^d Jacob begat Judas and his brethren,

³ And ^e Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, and ^f Phares begat Esrom, and Esrom begat Aram, ⁴ And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon.

⁵ And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse,

⁶ And ^g Jesse begat David the king, and ^h David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias,

⁷ And ⁱ Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa,

⁸ And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias, ⁹ And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezekias, ¹⁰ And ^k Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias,

¹¹ And ^{||} Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

¹² And after they were brought to Babylon ^l Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel, ¹³ And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor, ¹⁴ And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud, ¹⁵ And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob, ¹⁶ And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

¹⁷ So all the generations, from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

¹⁸ ¶ Now, the ^m birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child ⁿ of the Holy Ghost.

¹⁹ Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing ^o to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

²¹ ¶ And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for ^q he shall save his people from their sins.

²² (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

²³ ^r Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and ^{||} they shall call his name Emmanuel; which, being interpreted, is, God with us.)

²⁴ Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife;

²⁵ And knew her not till she had brought forth ^s her first-born son; and he called his name JESUS.

CHAP. II.

1 The wise men, enquiring after Christ, are directed by a star: 11 they worship him. 13 Joseph fleeth into Egypt.

NOW, when ^t Jesus was born in Beth-lehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men ^u from the east to Jerusalem, ² Saying, ^v Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen ^w his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

³ When Herod the king had heard these things he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

⁴ And when he had gathered all ^x the chief priests and ^y scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

⁵ And they said unto him, In Beth-lehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

⁶ ^z And thou Beth-lehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, ^h that shall || rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wife men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Beth-lehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child; and, when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures ^l they || presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And, being warned of God ^k in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed unto their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord ap-peareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word:
for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt;

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, ^l Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wife men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Beth-lehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wife men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by ^m Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Ramia was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appear-eth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside ⁿ into the parts of Galilee;

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled ^o which was spoken by the prophets, ^p He shall be called a Nazarene.

C H A P. III.

1 John preacheth; his office, apparel, and meat: 5 he baptizeth, 7 and re-buketh the Pharisees. 13 Christ is baptized, and receiveth witness from heaven.

I N those days came ^a John the Baptist, preaching ^b in the wilderness of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: ^c for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, ^d The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And ^e the same John ^f had his raiment of camels hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was ^g locusts and wild honey.

5 ¶ ^h Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 ⁱ And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, ^k O generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from ^l the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth, therefore, fruits
|| meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, ^m We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees; ⁿ therefore every tree which bringeth not forth
